The Calendar

This calendar reflects the University's regulations, and other information about the University, as of the date of its printing. However, these regulations are under constant review, and the University is continually changing. It is each student's responsibility to be familiar with University regulations and other information about the University which affects him or her, whether the regulations and other information are recorded in this calendar or not, and including any changes made from time to time to the said regulations and other information.

When changes are made in academic programmes, a student may elect to satisfy the requirements of the new programme or if it is still reasonably possible to do so, of the programme in effect at the time of first enrollment, provided no interruption in studies has occurred since that first enrollment.

Mount Allison University does not accept any responsibility for loss or damage suffered or incurred by any student as a result of the suspension or termination of services, courses or classes caused by reason of strikes, lockout, riots, weather, damage to University property or for any other cause beyond the reasonable control of Mount Allison.

Mount Allison has a non-discriminatory policy and does not discriminate against applicants and students on the basis of race, creed, colour, national or ethnic origin or sexual orientation. Such a non-discriminatory policy applies also to staff.

WELCOME TO MOUNT ALLISON UNIVERSITY

When you first arrive at Mount Allison, you know this University is special. The charming campus tells a tale of rich history, with historic buildings, antique books delicately bound, and stately portraits of past presidents and chancellors hanging in Convocation Hall. But Mount Allison also has its sights firmly set on the future. Underground, for example, the campus is connected by an intricate network of fibre-optic wiring, granting all on campus access to the Internet. Mount Allison was the first university in Canada to offer this access, and the University continues to embrace innovative technology in other new and exciting ways.

OUR MISSION

Mount Allison University is committed to the creation and dissemination of knowledge in a community of higher learning, centred on undergraduate students, in an intimate and harmonious environment. Our teaching, research and creative enterprise are combined with extracurricular activities, in a liberal education tradition, that emphasizes development of the whole person. This integrated approach involves collaborative efforts among all members of the University community and leads to superior scholarship, cultural understanding and appreciation, personal and social maturation, leadership development and informed citizenship.

WELL-ROUNDED STUDENTS IN A TIGHT-KNIT COMMUNITY

Mount Allison is primarily an undergraduate, liberal arts and science university with a controlled enrollment of approximately 2,250 full-time students. It has preserved the character of a compact, scholarly community to foster excellence in teaching, mentoring and student-centred research. A strong emphasis on extra-curricular activities, ranging from athletics to the exercise of student government complements the dedication to high academic performance. Mount Allison strongly supports the philosophy of developing the "whole student" intellectually, spiritually, socially, culturally and physically. It shapes leaders who are critical thinkers, problem solvers and creative participants in society. Moreover, our students agree that Mount Allison is more than a university...it's a way of life. If there is one common thread to Mount Allison students, it is their academic strength and their propensity of leadership. Mount Allison has produced 45 Rhodes Scholars, more per capita than any other university in the Commonwealth. The University has also graduated a number of Rotary International Scholars, Commonwealth Scholars, and in 1997, one of the first winners of the Canadian Cambridge Scholarship. Many graduates have become preeminent in their endeavours. Notable alumni include: playwright John Gray; artists Alex Colville, and Mary and Christopher Pratt; national broadcaster Ian Hanoomansing; former Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick Margaret McCain; former Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick Marilyn Trenholme Counsell and Imasco Chairman Purdy Crawford, who also served as Chancellor of Mount Allison.

THE FACULTY

The University's faculty is talented and dedicated, exemplifying a strong blend of teaching and research. In a recent University survey, 100% of graduates felt their professors were approachable, which speaks volumes about the relationships between faculty and students at Mount Allison.

AN EDUCATION SUITED TO THE 21ST CENTURY

Mount Allison offers Bachelor's degrees in Arts, Science, Commerce, Fine Arts and Music, as well as Master's degrees in Biology and Chemistry and Certificates in Bilingualism. In 1995, it revised its curriculum to give students even greater "depth and breadth" to their education as they enter the 21st century. A series of majors and minors was developed in the traditional disciplines and in a number of interdisciplinary areas such as International Relations, Canadian Public Policy, Japanese Studies and Cognitive Science. The Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees are achieved through completion of one of a specialized honours programme; a major plus a minor; a double major; or a general degree of three minors. In addition, each Arts and Science student takes at least six credits from each of four disciplinary areas of Arts and Letters, Humanities, Social Science, and Science. The revised requirements have resulted in very exciting intellectual opportunities for students, giving them a chance to examine problems and issues from a number of different perspectives. Prospective students often wonder about the purpose of receiving a bachelor's degree from a liberal arts institution in a globally competitive economy. The usefulness of a bachelor's degree is not only found in personal development but also in professional areas. A degree from Mount Allison, or a few carefully selected courses or electives as part of a Mount Allison degree, may permit a student admission to a professional programme. Some of these programmes include medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, veterinary medicine, law, education, theology, social work, audiology and speech, occupational physiotherapy, optometry, architecture and nutritional programmes as well as many others. These professional programmes may be accessed upon successful completion of courses and/or a degree from Mount Allison and in combination with other requirements as appropriate (e.g. LSAT, MCAT, GRE, etc.). Interested students should consult the Academic and Career Counsellor for advice on course selection and the process to enter these professional programmes after their undergraduate career at Mount Allison.

A REPUTATION FOR LEADERSHIP

For more than a century, Mount Allison has been recognized as a leader. Mount Allison was the first university in the British Empire to confer a Bachelor's degree to a woman; Grace Annie Lockhart received a Bachelor of Science in 1875. It was also the first university in Canada to grant a Bachelor of Arts to a woman, Harriet Starr Stewart. Mount Allison boasts the oldest university art gallery in Canada; it was the first to wire all of campus to the information highway; it was the first to offer a Canadian Studies programme; and it is a pioneer in the establishment of services for students with learning disabilities. In recent years, it has consistently been ranked the number-one undergraduate university in Canada by Maclean's magazine. A high-calibre faculty, outstanding students and financial stability are among the reasons why.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Founder Charles Frederick Allison's grandfather emigrated from Ireland in the late 1700s, as a result of a dinner with the local tax collector. Wanting to impress him, the family set the table with their one valuable possession of silver spoons. After entertaining their guest, the Allisons were informed that if they could afford silver spoons, they could afford to pay more taxes. They left Ireland shortly thereafter. The spoons are on display in the main Library. In June 1839, Sackville merchant Charles Frederick Allison proposed to the Wesleyan Methodists that a school of elementary and high learning be built. His offer to purchase a site in Sackville, to erect a suitable building for an academy, and to contribute operating funds of 100 pounds a year for 10 years was accepted. The formal opening of the Mount Allison Academy for boys took place in 1843. In 1854, a branch institution for girls, known as the "Ladies College", opened to complement the Wesleyan Academy for boys. In July 1862, the degree-granting Mount Allison College was organized. The first two students graduated in May 1863. For nearly a century, Mount Allison functioned as three distinct, mutually enriching parts: the College proper, the Boys' Academy and the Ladies College. The closure of the School for Girls in 1946, and the Academy in 1953, coincided with a period of expansion and provided much-needed space. In 1958, the beginning of a period of construction and acquisition of buildings eased the strain of overcrowding. At this time, it was decided to reaffirm the traditional aim of providing a high-quality undergraduate liberal arts education, along with continuing to offer professional programmes in already-established fields. Mount Allison has a long and proud tradition, and part of that tradition has been the ability to evolve and to adapt to new and changing demands. It is very much a university of the 21st century, while remaining the direct and recognizable descendant of the first Wesleyan Academy of 1843.

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAMPUSES IN CANADA

The Mount Allison calendar for 1851 declared Sackville a "pleasant and healthy" community, "easy of access from all parts of the Lower Provinces." The Mount Allison buildings are "elegant, spacious and comfortable, and delightfully situated upon an elevation of ground." The facilities offered were, "all that could be desired, either for the enterprising Teacher to aid him in his work of instruction, or to the ambitious Student to facilitate his honourable progress." Writing styles have changed since then, but Mount Allison still continues to take pride in its campus. The campus encompasses about 76 acres, 45 buildings and one million square feet of assignable space. The tree and shrub count is about 1,100, giving the campus a tranquil, park-like setting. The physical surroundings are enhanced even further by the Swan Pond, a symbol of Mount Allison since its introduction in 1901. It has traditionally been the site of picnics, cultural events, orientation activities and wintertime skating. The past few years have witnessed a number of improvements to the facilities. Almost $25 million was spent on much-needed repairs to buildings and grounds, including residences. A three-phase project to upgrade the underground steam and electrical tunnels was completed, and the University seized this opportunity to spruce up the landscaping, particularly in the heart of the campus. Improvements continue to take place to enhance the learning environment. For example, the opening of the Dr. Y.S. Wu Teaching Centre in 1996 provides faculty and students with state-of-the-art facilities for teaching and learning. Unlike some other institutions, this University has never moved from its original campus; it has expanded in area, but is still centred on that rise of ground named "Mount Allison" after the founder. The traditional use of red and grey local sandstone, plus continual efforts to beautify and upgrade facilities, offers a setting that honours the past, yet embraces the future.

3.6 REQUIREMENTS FOR NON-CANADIAN EDUCATION SYSTEMS

3.6.1 American School System

Students studying an American high school curriculum will be considered for admission provided they have successfully completed a selection of university/college preparatory courses and graduated from an accredited high school. The required academic standing is comparable to those outlined in sections 3.3 and 3.4. Scholastic Achievement Test (SAT) results are not required, but students are encouraged to submit their results.

3.6.2 General Certificate of Education (GCE)

For those studying towards the General Certificate of Education or the General Certificate of Secondary Education, (e.g. in the United Kingdom, West Indies, Bermuda, East and West Africa, Hong Kong) the University requires a minimum of two subjects at the Advanced 'A' Level and three at the Ordinary 'O' Level, or three at the 'A' Level and one at the 'O' level, with an overall average of 'C' and no subject below a 'D' grade. Two Advanced Standard (AS) Level courses may be used in place of one Advanced Level course.

3.6.3 International Baccalaureate

Students pursuing an International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma programme must include three courses in each of the higher and standard levels, with a minimum score of 4 in each subject and a minimum overall score of 28 points (excluding bonus points). Credit may be granted for specific higher level courses with minimum scores of 5 points (see section 3.9.1).

3.6.4 Baccalaureate

Students following France's system of education, must complete the requirements for the Baccalaureate with a minimum academic standing of 'Assez Bien'.

3.6.5 Other Educational Systems

Students studying in other educational systems are expected to satisfy the university admissions requirements of their own country, and must demonstrate a high level of accomplishment.

3.7 ENGLISH REQUIREMENTS

As English is the primary language of instruction at Mount Allison University, students must possess a mastery of English sufficient to follow lectures and to write assignments and examinations in English. All applicants will be required to provide evidence of English language proficiency. This evidence may take one of the following forms:

- Successful completion of at least three years of instruction in Canada at a secondary institution as recognized by Mount Allison University
- Successful completion of at least 30 credit hours (or equivalent) at a post-secondary institution as recognized by Mount Allison University where English is the primary language of instruction
- TOEFL score of 550 (paper test) or 213 (computer test)
- Michigan English Language Assessment Battery MELAB score of 85%
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS) score of 6.5
- Completion of the ELS USA Programme with a score of 109
- Canadian Academic English Language Assessment CAEL with an overall score of 70, and no sub-test result below 60

3.8 MATURE STUDENTS

Mature applicants who have not satisfied the admission requirements will be considered for admission upon submission of evidence of ability and motivation to successfully undertake university-level study. Usually mature applicants will not have been registered as full-time students for at least five years.

3.9 ADMISSION WITH ADVANCED STANDING

3.9.1 International Baccalaureate

The University grants a maximum of 18 credits on a 120-credit degree programme for higher level International Baccalaureate subjects completed with grades of 5, 6, or 7.

3.9.2 Collège d'Enseignement Général et Professionnel (CEGEP)

Students accepted to Mount Allison from the CEGEP system may receive up to 30 credits according to the criteria listed below:

CEGEP	Mt. Allison Credits Granted
16 courses	6
18 courses	12
20 courses	18
22 courses	24
24 courses	30

3.9.3 General Certificate of Education (GCE)

Students who have successfully completed Advanced 'A' Level papers

4 FEES

The following sections deal with fees, refunds and related matters. We want to ensure that the process of registering students in courses and residences goes as smoothly as possible. To ensure that this is the case,

Inquiries should be directed to the Office of Student Services. The following are the 2003/04 room communications and meal plan fees for the full academic year. They are subject to change for the 2004/05 academic year.

Room
Double	$3,230.00

4.3.2 Fall and Winter Payments by Part-Time Students

All fees for courses taken in the fall or winter semester are due and payable at the time of registration.

4.3.3 Fall Payments by Full-time Students

The fall semester payments due September 16, are in addition to the deposits listed.

Students are responsible for payment of fees by the fee deadlines. In the situations outlined in section 4.3.7 only, payments may be made that are less than these amounts. Registered students may view their accounts through Connect@MTA. Students are encouraged to use on-line banking or alternatively, to leave payment by cheque in the drop box, located outside the Office of Student Services on the first floor of Centennial Hall.

University services may be revoked if by the fall payment due date either 1) the correct fall payment has not been received, or 2) late payment arrangements have not been approved. See section 4.4.2. Therefore, please forward your payments well in advance of their due dates, and, if you cannot make your full payment on time, please consult as early as possible before the due date with a) the Financial Aid Officer in the Office of Student Services, if payment is delayed by the Canada Student Loans Programme or b) the General Accountant in Financial Services, if payment is delayed for other reasons.

4.3.4 Winter Payments by Full-time Students

All amounts pertaining to the winter semester are payable by January 12. Students are encouraged to use on-line banking or alternatively, leave post-dated cheques in the drop box, located outside the Office of Student Services on the first floor of Centennial Hall, before leaving campus in December. Notification concerning account balances based on winter registration which must be paid in January will be sent to students during the fall semester. Students admitted to the University beginning in January will be advised upon registration of the amount owing. The winter fees for students may change if courses are added or dropped after statements are prepared in the fall and before the due date for winter payments. Registered students may access their accounts through Connect@MTA.

University services may be revoked if by the winter payment due date either 1) the correct winter payment has not been received, or 2) late payment arrangements have not been approved. See section 4.4.2. Therefore, please forward your payments well in advance of their due dates, and, if you cannot make your full payment on time, please consult as early as possible before the due date with a) the Financial Aid Officer in the Office of Student Services, if payment is delayed by the Canada Student Loans Programme or b) the General Accountant in Financial Services, if payment is delayed for other reasons.

4.3.5 Fall and Winter Payments for Students Participating in Exchange Programmes

Fall Payments - Strasbourg Programme

For students participating in the Strasbourg exchange programme the

4.4 LATE FEES AND INTEREST CHARGES

4.4.1 Late Registration Deposit Processing Fee

A $50 late payment processing fee will be charged if the University does not receive the Registration Deposit from returning students by the due date.

4.4.2 Services Reinstatement Fee

University services may be revoked in the case of dishonoured payments or failure to meet the defined payment schedule. Students wishing to have their services reinstated, including reinstatement of their academic programme, will be charged a services reinstatement fee of $100.

4.4.3 Interest Charge

Interest will be applied to outstanding balances at the rate of 1.5% per month (19.56% per annum compounded).

4.4.4 Appeals of Academic Standing

Letters of appeal from students appealing their academic standing at the end of the academic year will only be forwarded to the Admissions and Re-admissions Committee for consideration if there are no outstanding fees payable on the students' accounts.

4.5 WITHDRAWALS AND STUDENT ACCOUNTS

4.5.1 Academic Withdrawals

Absence from classes does not constitute withdrawal.

Full-time students who wish to withdraw from the University must begin the process with the Dean of Students located in the Student Life Office, University Centre. Withdrawal is not effective until the Dean of Students has approved the withdrawal request. The date of withdrawal for the purpose of fee administration will be the date this approval is given.

Full-time and part-time students who wish to withdraw from one or more courses will be able to withdraw from all but the last course on-line using Connect@MTA. The date of withdrawal for the purpose of fee administration will be the date the withdrawal is effective on Connect@MTA. There will be no fee charged for courses dropped within the first week of classes. For withdrawals after the first week of classes, fees will be calculated as 15% of the tuition for the semester times the number of weeks since the first day of classes. Full tuition is charged for withdrawals after the sixth week of classes.

Students changing from full-time to part-time status should contact the Office of Student Services regarding their fee obligations.

Withdrawals from non-credit courses will be assessed on a per course basis depending on the nature and duration of the course.

Any inquiries regarding the calculation/proration of tuition fees on academic withdrawal should be directed to the Office of Student Services.

4.5.2 Academic Withdrawals (Correspondence Courses, Spring Session)

Refunds are calculated from the date that written, faxed or e-mailed notification of withdrawal is received by the Office of Student Services.

Full time students who wish to withdraw from a correspondence course that is part of their full time course load and for which they have not paid an additional fee over full time tuition, will only be eligible for a refund if their status changes to part time. These students should contact the Office of Student Services regarding their eligibility for a credit.

All refunds are calculated from the date that students register for a correspondence course and the date that the written request for withdrawal is received by the Office of Student Services. Fee credits will be calculated as the tuition fee paid for the course minus 15% times the number of weeks including the week of withdrawal, since the student registered for the course. A two week grace period is given to distance education students to take into account the fact that materials often need to be sent to them before they can be expected to begin a course. There is no credit (refund) given 8 weeks after the student has registered in a correspondence course. (8 weeks includes two weeks grace period).

Refunds will not be given to students who do not adhere to these deadlines.

4.5.3 Residence and Meal Plan Withdrawals

Students wishing to withdraw from residence and/or the meal plan must begin the process with the Dean of Students located in the Student Life Office, University Centre. Withdrawal is not effective until the Dean of Students has approved the withdrawal request. The date of withdrawal for the purpose of fee administration will be the date this approval is given, or the date students have checked out of residence and meal cards and keys have been returned, whichever is later.

The student's account will be adjusted to reflect residence and/or meal plan charges as follows:

Month of withdrawal:

September	40% of the full year cost
October	50% of the full year cost
November	60% of the full year cost
December	70% of the full year cost
January	80% of the full year cost
February	90% of the full year cost
March	97% of the full year cost
April	100% of the full year cost

Students entering residence and/or meal plan for one semester will have their accounts adjusted to reflect residence and/or meal plan charges as follows:

Month of withdrawal, as determined above:

September or January	50% of semester cost
October or February	75% of semester cost
November or March	95% of semester cost
December or April	100% of semester cost

Students who decide during the Christmas break not to return to the University in January must so advise the University by December 31 to be treated for fee purposes as a December withdrawal. This may be done even if University offices are closed by e-mail to <sas@mta.ca>, or by faxing the Office of Student Services; fax (506) 364-2272, or leaving a voice mail message with the Dean of Students; phone (506) 364-2255. Any student who wishes counselling before making this decision should so inform the Dean of Students by December 31, by voice mail if University offices are closed.

Students entering residence and purchasing meal plans in the middle of a semester who subsequently withdraw should contact the Office of Student Services regarding their charges for the semester. Any inquiries should be directed to the Office of Student Services.

4.5.4 Payments to Students from their Accounts

Payments will only be made to students from their accounts with the University if, and to the extent that, their accounts have a credit balance. Students may forfeit a scholarship or bursary from Mount Allison if they do not complete the academic year and this may affect whether there is a refund on withdrawal and the amount of any such refund. Furthermore, if any portion of a student's fees was paid by Canada Student Loan Programme, the University is obliged to remit any refund upon withdrawal to the Canada Student Loan Programme, or student's bank, for credit towards their government student loan.

4.5.5 Required to Withdraw

Students required to leave the University or its residences for failing to meet the required payment schedule, or for academic or disciplinary reasons, will be required to complete the withdrawal process and will be responsible for the charges detailed in sections 4.5.1, 4.5.2, and 4.5.3.

5 FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

5.1 SCHOLARSHIPS

Mount Allison is well known for its scholarship programme, resulting primarily from the generosity of numerous benefactors.

5.1.1 Eligibility

The University awards scholarships to entering students for academic achievement. Students need not apply for these scholarships, as consideration for scholarship eligibility is automatic and part of the Admissions process. All students who have financial need are urged to apply for the Sharp and Goodridge scholarships which are based on academic achievement and financial need by completing Section C of the application form. The deadline for application for the September 2004 session is March 15.

5.1.2 Entrance Scholarships

Scholarships awarded to entering students are tenable as long as the student is carrying a full course load, and all other conditions of the award are fulfilled. Some scholarships are renewable if stated in the scholarship offer.

5.1.3 The Bell Scholarship

The Bell Scholarship is an entrance scholarship that was established in 2002 as the premier entrance scholarship at Mount Allison. It was established to perpetuate the memory of the Bell Family and their significant contributions to Mount Allison. The scholarship celebrates students who have demonstrated strong academic ability, leadership potential, volunteer work, extracurricular activities, work experience and good citizenship. Students interested in this scholarship must submit their completed application form by March 15th, following the criteria outlined on the Mount Allison application for admission form.

5.1.4 Scholarships for Returning Students

All students who attend Mount Allison will be considered for scholarships after their first year of study. These scholarships will be awarded annually to the very best students enrolled in a full course load in each faculty.

5.2 BURSARIES

The Mount Allison bursary programme provides assistance to full-time and part-time students who demonstrate financial need and who have exhausted all other avenues of support. Prior to applying for a Mount Allison bursary, applicants should apply to their Province or Country of residence for financial aid. Bursaries are awarded on the basis of financial need to students who have made satisfactory academic

5.5 THE DONALD A. CAMERON STUDENT LOAN FUND

Donald A. Cameron served this University as Registrar from 1959 to 1986, following a term as Assistant Professor of Education. He obtained a B.Sc. in 1950 from Mount Allison University. In 1952-53, he held a Lord Beaverbrook Overseas Scholarship and received a Diploma in English Educational Thought and Practice from the University of London in 1953. Upon his retirement as Registrar in 1986, and in recognition of his long and distinguished service, the University established the Donald A. Cameron Student Loan Fund from which students with financial need and good academic standing might be able to obtain assistance. Interested students may apply at the Office of Student Services.

6 ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

The following regulations apply to students in all undergraduate degree or certificate programmes. Students are responsible for knowing and adhering to these regulations as well as to the regulations pertaining to their particular programmes.

6.1 REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

6.1.1 Registration Deadline

All full and part-time students must register each year, according to procedures and time frames supplied by the Office of Student Services. Failure to do so results in a financial penalty and possible denial of registration in certain courses. In September and in January no students may register after the first two weeks of classes following registration, unless allowed on presentation of a medical certificate or on compassionate grounds approved by an Academic Dean.

6.1.2 Pre-Registration

Some academic departments require pre-registration of returning students for courses in their departments. For further information, please consult Department Heads.

6.1.3 Graduating Under One Calendar

Students with continuous enrollment at the University may elect to graduate under any one calendar in force during their registration subject to the availability of courses. However, students returning after an interval of a year or more during which time there has been a change in the curriculum, will be governed by the calendar in force when they return. Where necessary, an Academic Dean will interpret the student's past record in terms of the new curriculum.

6.1.4 Determining Year Level

Students must have earned 24 credits to register in second year, 54 to register in third year, and 84 to register in fourth year.

6.1.5 Normal Course Loads and Over Loads

Full-time students are expected to register for the equivalent of 30 credits in the September through April academic year, normally 15 credits per term.

- a) Students in first year will not normally be permitted to register for more than 15 credits per term.
- b) Students in years 2 and 3 may register for up to 18 credits per term, provided they have attained a GPA of at least 3.0 in the previous term. Students who do not meet this requirement must have permission from the appropriate Academic Dean in order to register for overload credits.
- c) Students with fourth-year standing who are in Good Standing, may register for up to 3 credits overload per term. Students who do not meet this requirement must have permission from the appropriate Academic Dean in order to register for overload credits. The permission of the appropriate Academic Dean is required for registration above a 3 credits overload per term.

Students in any programme may add ensemble credits in Music to a normal course load.

- d) For overloads in excess of 6 credits (3 credits per semester) for the September through April academic year, additional fees will be charged.(see Fees section)

6.1.6 Introductory Courses

First-year students may select any courses introductory to a discipline for which they have the prerequisites. These will normally be numbered at the 1000 or 2000 level.

6.1.7 Repeating Courses

No student may take the same course more than three times or be examined in it more than four times.

6.1.8 Auditing Courses

Students admitted to the university who wish to audit a course must obtain written permission of the instructor before formally registering for the course. The instructor may deny permission to audit the course. The nature and degree of class participation must be clarified in advance and is at the discretion of the course instructor. Students auditing a course will not write final examinations or receive a grade for the course. The notation of 'AU' will be indicated on the transcript upon verification by the instructor that the student has completed the specified nature and degree of class participation. A course may not be changed from credit to audit or from audit to credit status after the last day of the change in registration period. Registration and withdrawal deadlines apply to audited courses. Fees are payable as indicated in the Financial Information section of the calendar.

6.2 CHANGES IN REGISTRATION/PROGRAMMES

6.2.1 Deadline for Registration Changes

Registration changes are allowed for 3 credit courses during the first week of classes of either term or for 6 credit courses during the first two weeks of first term. Application must be made to the Office of Student Services.

6.2.2 Withdrawal Without Penalty

All students registered during the regular academic session may withdraw without academic penalty from a three credit course before the end of the eighth week of classes and from a 6 credit course before the end of the second week of classes in the second term. The withdrawal deadline for a full year 3 credit course is the same as for a 6 credit course. To withdraw from a course a student must submit written notification to the Office of Student Services. 'W' will be recorded on the transcript. In all courses, work worth at least 20% of the final grade will normally be evaluated and returned to students before the withdrawal date for the course. Exemptions from the policy must be authorized by the appropriate Academic Dean.

6.2.3 Withdrawal After the Deadline

A student who wishes to withdraw after the deadline because of illness or other sufficient reason may apply to the appropriate Academic Dean for a 'W' designation.

Any student who does not withdraw from a course in accordance with these regulations must remain registered in the course for the remainder of the term and will receive a grade.

6.2.4 Changing Programmes

A student wishing to transfer from one programme to another must apply to the Office of Student Services for a transfer, not later than APRIL 15. For students applying for transfer to Commerce, the deadline is APRIL 15 of their second year of study. For students applying for transfer to Music, the deadline is MARCH 1. For a student applying for transfer to Fine Arts, the deadline is APRIL 1. Request for Change of Degree Programme forms are available on the web at <<http://www.mta.ca/administration/sas/forms.html>>.

6.3 CONTINUOUS LEARNING

See section 8 for information about regulations for courses taken through the department of Continuous Learning.

6.4 ADVANCED PLACEMENT

Students who have received credit in a subject and who propose to register for a further course in that subject must at registration determine placement in consultation with the department concerned. Placement may be granted without credit. In cases of doubt applicants may be required to write one or more examinations upon entering the University.

6.5 TRANSFER CREDITS

6.5.1 Students Transferring from another Institution

Students transferring from recognized institutions may be considered for admission with advanced standing. Such students may receive credits for courses previously completed as determined by the Registrar in consultation with the appropriate Academic Department or Academic Dean. Credit will only be granted if the course(s) count on a programme at the original institution AND can be applied to programmes offered by Mount Allison. Transfer credit will normally be granted for courses with passing grades for which credit has been earned. However, students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained. Transfer credits are recorded on the transcript with credit value only, no grade is recorded and they are excluded from the Grade Point Average. A maximum of 60 transfer credits may be credited toward a degree from Mount Allison. (See also Regulation 6.6.2 regarding transfer credit limitations). Students transferring credits from another institution must provide the following:

- an official transcript pertaining to the credits, submitted directly to the Office of Student Services by the institution concerned.
- detailed course descriptions from the transferring institution's calendar. (Notarized English translations should be included if applicable)

6.5.2 Taking Courses at another Institution

Students planning to take courses at another university for Mount Allison credit must first obtain the Registrar's approval, by completing an application for a Letter of Permission, available on the web at <<http://www.mta.ca/administration/sas/forms.html>>. If approval is granted, a Letter of Permission will be issued on payment of the requisite fee. A passing grade may be accepted for transfer credit, however students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

6.6 DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

6.6.1 Credits Required for a Degree

All undergraduate degrees require completion of 120 credits.

6.6.2 Additional Requirements

Students must complete at Mount Allison at least half the credits required for a degree. Third and fourth year courses will normally be completed at Mount Allison.

6.7 DEGREE WITH DISTINCTION REQUIREMENTS

The degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Commerce, Bachelor of Fine Arts and Bachelor of Music will be awarded with Distinction at the discretion of the Senate. To be considered for Distinction, a student should have maintained a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of approximately 3.7 in all work undertaken at the University.

6.8 HONOURS DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

6.8.1 Total Credits

All degrees with Honours consist of at least 120 credits completed beyond the secondary school level. All candidates for these degrees must meet the average requirements outlined below.

6.8.2 Honours GPA and Overall GPA Requirements

A degree with First Class Honours requires attainment of a 3.7 Cumulative Grade Point Average in the prescribed Honours work; a degree with Honours requires attainment of a 3.0 Cumulative Grade Point Average in the prescribed Honours work. Unless a specific statement indicating otherwise appears after the Honours programme description, all courses specified in the programme are included in the calculation of the Honours average. When a thesis is part of the programme, a minimum grade of B is required in all cases. In addition, a cumulative Grade Point Average of approximately 3.0 must be earned by all Honours candidates on all work undertaken beyond the first year at Mount Allison. For those in full-time attendance at Mount Allison for three years or fewer, this average will be calculated on all Mount Allison courses taken.

6.8.3 Submitting a Thesis

Bound copies of an Honours student's thesis must be submitted to the supervisor no later than the first day of the final examination period.

6.8.4 Falling Short of the Honours Requirements

Students failing to achieve the minimum standard for Honours as defined in 6.8.2, but who otherwise have satisfactorily completed all of the courses in the prescribed curriculum, will be awarded a degree in the Major area of study.

6.9 SECOND UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Students who hold one undergraduate degree from Mount Allison may apply for re-admission to be a candidate for a second different undergraduate degree under the following regulations:

- a) the student should have demonstrated strong academic ability and must be approved by an Academic Dean.
- b) the student must fulfill all the requirements for the second degree
- c) the student must complete at least 36 additional credits, beyond those required for the first degree. Students who wish to complete the requirements for two different Bachelor's degrees at the same time must apply to the appropriate Academic Dean for approval.

6.10 HONOURS CERTIFICATE

Recipients of a first degree from Mount Allison earned with a Cumulative Grade Point Average of approximately 3.0 in both the last three years of the degree programme and in the intended Honours discipline may apply to an Academic Dean to return as a candidate for an Honours Certificate. Application forms are available on the web at: <http://www.mta.ca/administration/sas/forms.html>

6.11 GRADING SYSTEM

6.11.1 Grading Policies for Courses

In the first week of classes at the beginning of each academic term instructors shall provide each student in their courses with written information indicating the policy concerning assignments, tests, final examination, practical and laboratory work, class participation, attendance and supplemental examinations. The same information shall also be provided to the Department Head and the appropriate academic Dean.

6.11.2 Deadline for Course Work

Course work must be completed prior to the deadline for submission of the final grades.

6.11.3 Letter Grades and their Meanings

Letter grades are assigned. These grades, with descriptors and Grade

6.11.6 Repeated Courses and CGPA

In the event that a course is repeated, only the higher grade will be used in the Cumulative Grade Point Average calculation and in calculating the total number of credit hours used for the Cumulative Grade Point Average calculation. In the event that a course is repeated by transfer credit, the transfer credit is excluded from Cumulative Grade Point Average calculations, but the failed attempt(s) that the transfer credit replaces will also be excluded from the Cumulative Grade Point Average calculations. All results from attempts at a course will remain on the transcript.

6.11.7 Reporting of Grades

Results are reported to students following each examination period, but grades are not released until all accounts with the University have been paid. "Posting" of student grades is prohibited.

6.11.8 Re-evaluation of a Grade

After final grades are released by the Office of Student Services, a student may apply in writing to that office for re-evaluation of a grade. The student may ask for a re-read of the final examination and/or any written material not returned to the class before the last day of the final examination period of the term in which the course is concluded. This request must specifically state what material is to be re-evaluated. The calculation of the final grade will be reviewed and the material in question will be re-read by the faculty member concerned as well as by another faculty member designated by the Department Head. If there is serious disagreement between the two readers, the Department Head, or Academic Dean where appropriate, will then review the material under re-evaluation. If the final mark is based on performance not evaluated by written material, the re-read by both participants will be confined to a review of the mark sheets compiled by the original instructor. Students should remind themselves of the value of these items in relation to the overall course mark before determining whether it is worthwhile to apply for a re-read.

6.11.9 Application for Re-Read

A student may request a re-read within 40 days of the release of final grades by the Office of Student Services. The results of the re-read will normally be conveyed to the student within 30 days of receipt of the application. Students should remember that a grade can be revised upwards or downwards. A fee must be submitted with the application (see the Financial Information section near the front of the calendar). If the grade is revised upwards, the fee will be refunded. Application forms are available on the web at: <http://www.mta.ca/administration/sas/forms.html>.

6.11.10 Evaluating Written Work

Evaluation of students' written work includes evaluation of the quality of the written English as well as of the subject material.

6.11.11 Aegrotat Standing

Aegrotat Standing (pass standing granted for medical reasons, although all course requirements have not been completed) may be granted in certain exceptional cases by Senate.

6.12 STANDARDS OF PERFORMANCE

6.12.1 Assessment of Academic Standing

All references regarding standards of performance requirements are related to work attempted during the September through April academic year. When students have attempted at least 18 credits, they will be assessed at the end of that academic year.

6.12.2 Good Standing

Students remain in Good Standing if they pass 18 credits and attain a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 1.5. Note: Students must be in Good Standing and have permission of the university for study abroad programmes in which the University participates. Note: Students must be in Good Standing if they wish to apply for a Letter of Permission to take courses at another institution or to register for courses offered by Mount Allison in the Spring and Summer Sessions through Continuous Learning. Exceptions must be approved by the Academic Dean.

6.12.3 Unsatisfactory Standing

Students whose academic performance is such that they fail to achieve Good Standing will be placed on Academic Probation, Academic Suspension or Academic Dismissal. Students in these categories are in Unsatisfactory Academic Standing and the designated category will be recorded on their transcripts. Students on Academic Suspension or Academic Dismissal will be notified in a letter from the Chair of the Admissions and Re-admissions Committee of their academic standing and the procedures and deadlines for appeal. Those students seeking re-admission to the University must apply in a letter addressed to the Chair of the Admissions and Re-admissions Committee to be received by the Office of Student Services by the deadline specified (see 6.12.7 Procedures for Appeals and Re-Admissions). Letters of appeal for re-admission received after the deadline will not be considered by the Admissions and Re-admissions Committee. Note: A Letter of appeal will only be forwarded to the Admissions and Re-admissions Committee for consideration if there are no outstanding fees payable on the student's account (see 4.4.5 in the Fees section).

6.12.4 Academic Probation

Students who have been in Good Standing will be placed on Academic Probation if they:

- pass fewer than 18 credits but obtain a grade point average (GPA) of at least 1.0, or
- pass 18 or more credits but with a grade point average (GPA) of less than 1.5.

Students who are on Academic Probation are not permitted to register for more than the normal course load. To return to Good Standing, students on Academic Probation must pass 18 credits in their probationary period, and attain a minimum grade point average (GPA) of 1.5. Students on Academic Probation must obtain written permission from the Academic Dean to be eligible to apply to take courses on Letter of Permission during the probationary period or to register for courses offered by Mount Allison through Continuous Learning, including those offered during the Spring and Summer Sessions.

6.12.5 Academic Suspension

Students will be placed on Academic Suspension if in any academic year they pass fewer than 18 credits and obtain a grade point average charge and the sanction(s). If the student disputes the allegation, s/he OR the instructor may request that the Academic Judicial Committee hear the case. If the student admits the charge, but disputes the severity of the academic penalty, s/he may appeal to the Department Head and /or Academic Dean.

(GPA) of less than 1.0. Students who are on Academic Probation will be placed on Academic Suspension if they obtain a grade point average (GPA) of less than 1.5 or pass fewer than 18 credits. Students on Academic Suspension may not register for any Mount Allison courses nor receive credit at Mount Allison for courses taken elsewhere during the suspension period. Students may apply for readmission at the end of the period of Academic Suspension. If accepted, students will re-enter on Academic Probation. The period of Academic Suspension is one full year; however, the terms of Academic Suspension are effective until such time as the student applies for and is granted re-admission to the university. To seek re-admission for the study session commencing in September, students must complete a Former Student Application form and the Supplementary Questionnaire. These must be received by the Office of Student Services no later than June 15 of that year. Application forms are available on the web at:

- c) Academic dishonesty may be alleged by a member (or members) of the university community other than a course instructor (e.g. invigilator(s) in examinations, other students, Computing Services staff, etc.). If the allegation involves a course, it will be referred to the course instructor, who will follow procedures as in 6.13.2 (a) and (b). If the allegation does not involve a specific course or courses, it will be referred to the appropriate Academic Dean(s), who will report it to the Chair of the Academic Judicial Committee

A fee is charged for each special examination. The fee will be refunded if the application is not approved. Special examinations can be written at any time by agreement of the student, the instructor, and the Registrar. Normally special examinations are only permitted in the last year of the student's programme. Special examinations will receive a grade of 'Pass' or 'Fail' unless the Registrar, in consultation with the instructor, determines that a letter grade would be more appropriate.

6.15 WITHDRAWAL FROM UNIVERSITY

A student may withdraw from the University without academic penalty

6.18.6 Honorary Degrees

The Senate of the University has authorized the awarding of the following degrees Honoris Causa:

- a) Doctor of Divinity (D.D.)
- b) Doctor of Laws (LL.D.)
- c) Doctor of Civil Law (D.C.L.)
- d) Doctor of Literature (D.Litt.)
- e) Doctor of Music (D.Mus.)
- f) Doctor of Science (D.Sc.)
- g) Doctor of Fine Arts (D.F.A.)

6.19 NOTIFICATION OF DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION TO STATISTICS CANADA

Statistics Canada is the national statistical agency. As such, Statistics Canada carries out hundreds of surveys each year on a wide range of matters, including education.

It is essential to be able to follow students across time and institutions to understand, for example, the factors affecting enrollment demand at postsecondary institutions. The increased emphasis on accountability for public investment means that it is also important to understand 'outcomes'. In order to conduct such studies, Statistics Canada asks all colleges and universities to provide data on students and graduates. Institutions collect and provide to Statistics Canada, student identification information (student's name, student ID number, Social Insurance Number), student contact information (address and telephone number), student demographic characteristics, enrollment information, previous education, and labour force activity.

The Federal Statistics Act provides the legal authority for Statistics Canada to obtain access to personal information held by educational institutions. The information may be used for statistical purposes only, and the confidentiality provisions of the Statistics Act prevent the information from being released in any way that would identify a student.

7 ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES

This section provides complete outlines of the specific requirements for all degrees and/or certificates, as well as information regarding coherence from a theme, or approach held in common by its component courses. Such programmes are authorized in advance by Senate.

7.2.12 Specially Approved Major Area of Study

A Specially Approved Major Area of Study consists of a selection of courses worth 60 credits. This type of Major gains its coherence from a carefully thought-out combination of available courses which has not received prior authorization from Senate. Approval for this type of Major must be obtained from the appropriate Dean, in consultation with the Registrar, by the end of the third year.

7.2.13 Major Areas of Study Available for the B.A.

For the B.A., the following Major Areas of Study are available. For a complete list of courses required for each Major, see the appropriate heading under Programmes and Courses of Instruction.

7.2.14 The Minor as Required for the B.A.

The Minor is designed to be a minimum number of courses by which a student can achieve a modest sense of coherence in another field of study. As called for in 7.2.4, this requirement can be satisfied by completing the courses specified in any one of the named Minors listed in 7.2.18, (or under 7.3.21) according to one of the options outlined in 7.2.15 through 7.2.17.

7.2.15 Disciplinary Minor in Arts

A Disciplinary Minor consists of a selection of courses worth 24 credits, at least 6 of which must be completed at the 3000 and/or 4000 level. This type of Minor gains its minimum of coherence from the traditional discipline from which it is drawn.

7.2.16 Interdisciplinary Minor

An Interdisciplinary Minor consists of a selection of courses worth 24 credits, at least 6 of which must be completed at the 3000 and/or 4000 level. This type of Minor gains its coherence from a theme, or approach held in common by its component courses. Such programmes are authorized in advance by Senate.

7.2.17 Specially Approved Minor

A Specially Approved Minor consists of a selection of courses worth 24 credits, at least 6 of which must be completed at the 3000 and/or 4000 level. This type of Minor gains its coherence from a carefully thought-out combination of available courses which has not received prior authorization from Senate. Approval for this type of Minor must be obtained from the appropriate Academic Dean, in consultation with the Registrar, by the end of the third year.

7.2.18 Minors Available for the B.A.

For the B.A., the following Minors are available along with those listed under section 7.3.21. For a complete listing of courses required for each Minor, see the appropriate heading under Programmes and Courses of Instruction.

7.3.3 Additional B.Sc. Requirements

Six credits must be earned in Chemistry, six credits in Mathematics or Computer Science, six credits in Physics as follows:

- a) Chemistry: 6 credits from Chemistry 1001,1021
- b) Math/Comp: 3 credits from Mathematics 1111 and 3 additional credits from Mathematics 1121, 1131, 2211, 2221, 2311, Computer Science 1711

Note: Mathematics 2311 is not available for Psychology students.

- c) Physics: 3 credits from Physics 1051, and 3 additional credits from Physics 1551, 3511, 3521

Students' choices should be made according to their Major or Honours requirements. Students having advanced placement should consult with the appropriate department regarding substitution for any of the courses listed above.

7.3.4 Minimum Number of Science Credits

A minimum of 72 credits in Science must be earned from the Science disciplines.

7.3.5 3/4000 Level Science Courses

A minimum of 30 credits in Science must be earned from the 3000 and/or 4000 level.

7.3.6 Credits Required for a Major and Minor

The credits required for a B.Sc. include those required for a Major Area of Study [see list under 7.3.16], plus the credits required for a Minor from any other programme [see lists under 7.3.21 and 7.2.18]. No more than 9 credits can be counted in common between the Major and Minor. Where there are more than 9 credits of requirements in common, the credit value of the combined programme will still be at least 15 credits greater than the total for the Major. The Major Area of Study and Minor are recorded on the student's transcript. Although the combination of a Major and a Minor as called for in 7.3.6 is the usual means of achieving a B.Sc., other combinations are possible, as outlined in 7.3.7 through 7.3.10..

7.3.7 Additional Minor

Students who satisfy the requirements for more than one Minor will have the additional Minor(s) recorded on their transcript.

7.3.16 Major Areas of Study available for the B.Sc.

For the B.Sc., the following Major Areas of Study are available. For a complete listing of courses required for each Major, see the appropriate heading under Programmes and Courses of Instruction.

Disciplinary

 Biology

In situations where the candidate is close to fulfilling requirement (a), the Committee may admit the student to a qualifying year. In this case, the Department concerned will be asked by the Committee to suggest a course of study that will fulfill requirement (a) and that will build sufficient strength of background to carry on work at the graduate level. A passing grade must be obtained in each of these courses as well as a minimum overall Cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.0. Students completing qualifying courses will register as special students and are not graduate students while pursuing these studies. They will be admitted to graduate studies when the committee decides that the qualifying conditions have been fulfilled.

7.4.3 Time Required

The minimum time required to complete graduate studies is one full year (two years is the normal situation). The programme of study must be completed within five years.

7.4.4 Course and Thesis Requirements

All candidates must complete a minimum of two to a maximum of four 3 credit graduate courses as determined by the supervisory committee; a research programme and a thesis based on this research; and participate in the departmental seminar series as determined by the supervisor. The format of the written thesis will follow the rules for the Honours thesis. Copies of the thesis must be made available to the members of the candidate's Supervisory Committee three weeks prior to public presentation.

7.4.5 Standards of Achievement

The candidate must achieve a grade of at least B- in each course required for the degree, and also must pass a public oral examination on the thesis and related material.

7.4.6 Supervisory Committee

A committee of three will be appointed for each candidate by the Committee on Graduate Studies on the recommendation of the research supervisor who will be its chair, a teaching member of the department concerned, and a qualified person from outside that department. It will be the responsibility of this committee to review periodically the progress of the candidate, read the thesis and conduct the oral examination which will be presided over by the Chair of the Committee on Graduate Studies. A grade of 'Pass' or 'Fail' will be assessed for the thesis and its defence by the candidate's committee. (The Chair of the Committee on Graduate Studies has no vote in this decision). If a 'Fail' evaluation is rendered, the supervisory committee will decide if and what remedial measure must be undertaken to obtain a 'Pass' grade. The candidate will have one year to meet these conditions.

7.4.7 Special Departmental Regulations

In addition to the above regulations, each department may have special requirements as to language, necessary qualifying or complementary courses, etc. Information about such matters may be obtained from the heads of departments or may appear elsewhere in the Calendar under the departmental list of courses.

7.4.8 Application Procedure

Candidates should submit a curriculum vitae, a set of official transcripts, and arrange to have two letters of reference forwarded to the Chair of the Committee on Graduate Studies. It is recommended that applicants also contact individual faculty members about the possibility of carrying on advanced study and research with them.

7.5 BACHELOR OF COMMERCE

7.5.1 Primary Objective

The primary objective of the Mount Allison University Commerce programme is to explore with students the nature of the business world, and thus help them acquire administrative knowledge and skills. The studies focus on the process of effective problem solving and decision making in the business environment through the development of management systems which combine quantitative analysis and human judgement.

7.5.2 Majors

The Commerce programme is designed to enable students to study in depth a subject area (such as Accounting, Finance, Marketing) and, through elective courses from other programmes, to pursue interests which might not be immediately applicable to the study of commerce. Students may elect to major in Economics, Computing Information Systems, or in other approved disciplines (i.e., French, History, Chemistry, Political Science, etc.). The latter option is unique to Mount Allison and students are urged to give it very serious consideration.

7.5.3 Honours Programme

Honours programmes for the Commerce degree are available with approval of the Commerce Department. Students interested in pursuing Honours must apply to the Commerce Department by March 31, of year three. Students interested in pursuing Honours in Economics should contact the Economics Department. See regulations 7.5.12 and 7.5.13

7.5.4 Transferring to Commerce

Students applying for transfer into the Bachelor of Commerce programme must do so by APRIL 15 of their second year of study. Exceptions must be approved by the Head of the Commerce Department. To be eligible to transfer to the Bachelor of Commerce, students must meet the following two criteria:

- a) The attainment of a CGPA of at least 2.0 by the end of their second year at the University
- b) Students must have successfully completed the following 27 credits:
 - 12 credits from Mathematics 1111, Economics 1000 (or 1001 and 1011), 3 credits in Computer Science
 - 15 credits from Commerce 2101, 2131, 2201, 2301, Mathematics 2311 (or Psychology 2001) and Mathematics 2321 (or Economics 2701 or Psychology 2011).

7.5.5 Commerce Degree Programme

In order to qualify for a B.Comm. degree, a student must complete:

- a) 120 credits including
- b) A minimum of 42 credits from the 3/4000 level
- c) the Commerce Degree Core Programme requirements, and
- d) courses which satisfy the requirements for one of the following:
 - i) one of the Major Areas of Study described below, or

- ii) a Specially Approved non-Commerce Major Area of Study, or
- iii) a general B.Comm. with no Major Area of Study

7.5.6 Electives on Bachelor of Commerce Degree in Music) is designed for the student with a more general interest in music. A Minor in Music is available to students in any programme. The Bachelor of Music degree is offered without designated majors, and allows the student considerable latitude to put emphasis on any of the subject areas: Music Theory and Composition; Music History and Literature; Music Education and Performance. The programme requires

7.6.5 Group B. Music Electives

* This course may be repeated if topic differs

7.6.6 Group C. Non-music Electives

(30-33 credits) The non-Music courses in a programme leading to a Bachelor of Music have a twofold objective:

- a) to broaden the student's general knowledge; and
- b) to allow students to develop a Minor area of study

Note: The Bachelor of Music may be awarded with Distinction. See Regulation 6.7

7.6.7 Bachelor of Arts with Major in Music

This programme emphasizes the historical and theoretical aspects of the art of music. It is designed for the student who wishes a Major in Music along with more Arts and Science courses than the Bachelor of Music programme allows. Although no practical courses in Music are essential in this programme, it is highly desirable that the student have acquired some proficiency on an instrument or in voice prior to enrolling. Although this programme is not designed with a particular professional goal, it may lead to a career in music librarianship, music journalism, music therapy, music production in television and radio, music publishing, instrument manufacturing, or graduate work in musicology. For a complete listing of courses required for the B.A. Major in Music Programme see the appropriate heading under Programmes and Courses of Instruction.

7.6.8 Minor in Music

A Minor in Music is available to students in any programme. For a complete listing of courses required for the Minor in Music see the appropriate heading under Programmes and Courses of Instruction.

7.6.9 Bachelor of Arts with Honours in Music

Students considering an Honours Programme should consult as early as possible with the Head of the Department regarding the application process and admission criteria. See section 7.1.2 regarding declaration of intention to pursue Honours. For a complete listing of courses required for the B.A. Honours in Music Programme see the appropriate heading under Programmes and Courses of Instruction.

7.6.10 Recitals

In addition to performing on Collegium programmes, qualified students are given the opportunity of presenting full-length solo recitals, mini-recitals, participating in half-recitals, or performing in shared recitals. To be eligible to participate in a half-recital, a student must be recommended by his/her Applied Music teacher, must have achieved a grade point average of 3.7, or better, in Music 2500 (Chief Practical II), or 3500 (Chief Practical III) and must have participated in two Collegia or the equivalent, since enrolling in the Bachelor of Music programme. Students enrolling in 4590 must attain at least A- in Music 3500, and must have participated in at least one half-recital. Students enrolling in 4593 must attain at least A- in Music 3500, and must have participated in at least two collegia concerts (or the equivalent) since enrolling in the Bachelor of Music programme. Full-length recitals are usually presented in fulfillment of Music 4590 (Recital).

7.6.11 87ourses

Qualified students in any degree programme may also enroll in term of their final year. Candidates will be examined in both French and English in the areas of listening, speaking, reading and writing. The examinations are comprehensive, and may include writing letters and essays or translations; reading literary or other complex texts; and conversation or oral discussion. There is no prescribed sequence of courses in either language leading to the examination for the Certificate. Candidates are invited to profit from the many possibilities offered by the University to improve their language skills.

7.8.2 Standards

8 CONTINUOUS LEARNING

The Department of Continuous Learning provides educational opportunities for part-time, mature and evening students. It also provides the opportunity for full-time students to take additional courses. It helps mature part-time day students through the admissions and registration process and aids them in obtaining needed advice and counselling. The department also assists Student Life with orientation activities for these students.

8.1 EVENING CREDIT PROGRAMME

An evening credit programme is offered during the September through April academic year. It is possible for students to earn many of the 120 credits necessary for a degree through this programme. Evening courses are offered each year in Amherst, Moncton, and Sackville. Courses may also be arranged in other communities upon request. The Department attempts to introduce new courses into this programme to meet changing demands of adult learners.

8.2 MIRAMICHI FIRST YEAR AT HOME PROGRAMME

The Department coordinates Mount Allison's contribution to the Cooperative University Programme on the Miramichi. This programme, offered in partnership with St. Thomas University and the University of New Brunswick, provides a first year university programme in Arts, Sciences, Social Sciences, and Commerce to students on the Miramichi. This enables Miramichi students to complete their first year of university studies at home. A very limited number of second and third year courses is also offered in this programme.

8.3 MONCTON FIRST YEAR AT HOME PROGRAMME

A First Year at Home Programme is also offered in Moncton, New Brunswick. As in the Miramichi, the intention of the programme is to allow students to take all of their first year courses while staying in Moncton. All courses in this programme are Mount Allison courses. The programme includes required first year courses in Arts, Sciences, and Social Sciences, plus several elective courses.

8.4 THE CORRESPONDENCE PROGRAMME

The Correspondence programme is offered during both the academic year and the summer. It allows students to acquire credits

9 PROGRAMMES AND COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

This section provides alphabetically ordered descriptions of all Minor, Major and Honours programmes, including those that are interdisciplinary and those that centre on one discipline, as well as course descriptions for all disciplines. The course listings by disciplines are not an indication in all instances that a separate department exists for that discipline or that all courses are offered each year.

AMERICAN STUDIES

Interdisciplinary B.A. Programmes

MINOR in American Studies is 24 credits earned as follows:

ANTHROPOLOGY

Anthropology is the study of humans across space and time. It is essentially cross cultural, and attempts to understand the way of life of other peoples across the world, how they have attempted to solve pan human problems, food, shelter, and repopulation; and what worlds of meaning and explanation they have created. It is a comparative discipline seeking similarities and differences between societies and environments. Its study leads to a heightened awareness of the importance of culture and a sensitivity to cultural differences.

ANTHROPOLOGY COURSES

ANTH 1011 (3CR) INTRODUCTION TO ANTHROPOLOGY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 1011

The course is designed to introduce students to the major fields of anthropology (physical, archaeological, linguistic and cultural) and to the major domains of cultural and social anthropology (types of society, social change, and political, economic, kinship and religious institutions).

ANTH 2401 (3CR) ANTHROPOLOGY AND THE LIFE COURSE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: ANTH 1011 and 3 credits in Social Sciences; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: SOAN 2401

This course examines the human life course in comparative perspective. It expands on many of the anthropological concepts introduced at the 1000 level, but centres on exploring the relationship between individuals and their ecological and sociocultural environments throughout the life cycle. It covers such topics as birth, infancy, childhood, adolescence, family relations, and work in different cultures.

ANTH 2501 (3CR) ENVIRONMENT AND SOCIETY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Anthropology 1011 and 3 credits in Social Sciences; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: SOAN 2501

A study of the various types of society, both past and present, that have emerged or been transformed through their interaction with their environments. The course will explore features associated with the major forms of society from foraging, through horticultural and agrarian, to industrial and post-industrial societal types. It will explore such themes as demography, resource exploitation, ecological adaptation, energy access, and environmental impact, in the context of social organization and societal formation.

ANTH 2521 (3CR) ANTHROPOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES ON DEVELOPMENT

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 2521

An examination of development issues at the global and local levels, with emphasis on gender and indigenous peoples. The focus will fall on such questions as "What is development?" and "Who benefits?" The course reviews the contribution of applied anthropology, participatory action research, and popular education to development models, theory, and praxis.

ANTH 2801 (3CR) ABORIGINAL PEOPLES AND CULTURES OF CANADA

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 2801

An introduction to traditional and contemporary aboriginal societies and cultures of Canada, with particular attention being paid to their major regional divisions and issues of modernization affecting each.

ANTH 3021 (3CR) PERSPECTIVES IN ANTHROPOLOGY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: ANTH 1011 and 6 credits from 2000 level Anthropology courses; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: SOAN 3021

A review of the historical emergence of and major approaches taken to cultural and social anthropology. It will introduce the students to the major components of evolutionism, neo-evolutionism, particularism, 3CRion

ANTH 3311 (3CR)ANTHROPOLOGICAL RESEARCH METHODS

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Case Studies 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3311

This course introduces students to the central elements in anthropological field research methods, past and present. Topics covered include: research goals and project design; participant-observation and related techniques for acquiring original data; practical and ethical considerations regarding the field experience.

ANTH 3321 (3CR)FIELD COURSE IN ANTHROPOLOGY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Permission of the Department

This course is designed to provide students with an intensive field experience, during which they pursue research on a topic to be chosen by the Instructor. As such, the course is not designed to be offered during normal semester time, but is available to students through Continuous Learning. Completion of ANTH 3311 (Anthropological Research Methods) is recommended before registering for this course.

ANTH 3401 (3CR)BELIEF SYSTEMS

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Case Studies 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3401

This course explores the relationship between ideas, beliefs and social/cultural context. It covers a wide range of phenomena, among which are magic, witchcraft, shamanism, initiation and other types of rituals, and religious movements.

ANTH 3421 (3CR)FOLKLORE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3421

A survey of the various types of folklore - tale, song, rhyme, riddle, proverb, belief, and custom with particular attention to their form and function in relation to their contextual setting. Collection and analysis of examples by students will be combined with the use of materials from the Mary Mellish Archibald Memorial collection in the Library.

ANTH 3531 (3CR)FAMILY AND KINSHIP

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3531

A study of a central principle of social organization and a major institution in society. The course will investigate the forms and functions of kinship and the role of and changes in the family in relation to pre-industrial, industrial and post-industrial societies.

ANTH 3541 (3CR)ETHNOBOTANY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3541

Ethnobotany is the systematic study of how people of a particular region use and relate to plants. The scope of the course is global with special emphasis on the ecosystems of the Atlantic Region. Each year focuses on a different ecosystem. This is a field course, incorporating field trips and site visits as a class and for independent study, and providing basic skills for carrying out ethnobotanical fieldwork - plant identification and description, taxonomies, applications of specific plants for food, technology and medicine in different cultural traditions, ethnobotanical research methods and ethical issues.

ANTH 3621 (3CR)HEALTH AND CULTURE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3621

A review of the relations between human health and culture, biology and environment, with reference to the social dimensions of health, sickness, disease, and treatment. Through cross cultural and historic comparisons, connections between mainstream and alternate medicine are explored, and the role of anthropology in clinical settings and international health is discussed.

ANTH 3811 (3CR)CARIBBEAN ETHNOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: ANTH 1011 and 6 credits from 2000 level Anthropology courses; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: SOAN 3811

An introduction to the peoples and cultures of the Caribbean region through both a general review of the region and a detailed and critical analysis of specific ethnographies.

ANTH 3821 (3CR)MARITIME ABORIGINAL CULTURES IN ETHNOGRAPHIC PERSPECTIVE

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Case Studies 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3821

This course focuses on the aboriginal cultures of Atlantic Canada, offering an overview of the region and critical appraisal of ethnographic materials relating to its various peoples. Topics covered include: oral tradition, language and identity, healing and traditional medicine, spirituality, relations with Euro-Canadians, political movements, and issues of resource management

ANTH 3831 (3CR)

AREAL ETHNOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: ANTH 1011 and 6 credits from 2000 level Anthropology courses; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: SOAN 3831

An ethnographic study of an area other than those covered in other 3800 courses.

ANTH 3841 (3CR)

SOUTHEAST ASIAN ETHNOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3841

A course addressing social, cultural, and political issues in Southeast Asia from historical and contemporary perspectives, and considering social change and culture persistence in the region and in particular countries. Current topics such as refugees, biodiversity, gender, trade and development, nationalism, the legitimization of power, and relations between ethnic minorities and the state will be examined.

ANTH 3851 (3CR)

ARCTIC ETHNOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: SOAN 3851

A survey course exploring the diversity of the circumpolar regions, Siberia, Alaska, Greenland, Scandinavia and the Canadian North. How indigenous cultures have flourished in the harshest environment on earth will be examined. In addition, current issues facing indigenous peoples today such as, land claims, self-government, intellectual property rights, and transnational linkages, will be discussed.

ANTH 3861 (3CR)

AFRICAN ETHNOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: ANTH 1011 and 6 credits from 2000 level Anthropology courses; or permission of the Department

A course in which ethnographic studies of African peoples will be considered from a critical perspective. through course-readings and lectures and in extended class discussions covering a range of topics including art, ritual, gender, history, economy and world view. Students

BIOLOGY

Biology is the scientific study of living things: their form, their function, their origin and their behaviour. The study of Biology can be an important part of a liberal education, for to understand it well requires knowledge of chemistry, physics, mathematics, and natural history; to describe it well requires a command of language and ability to present observations visually; to appreciate it requires an awareness of human nature, both past and present, and the interplay between humans and other living organisms and their common environment. For three thousand years this discipline has developed to describe living things in aid of the arts of healing, of gardening and of living. Today it abounds with exciting new knowledge and discoveries, so that wise people still read about it with amazement or pursue it with delight.

In this department three things are attempted: to give all students an understanding of the scope, techniques and general principles which underline Biology; to encourage independent study and self-learning where possible; to give those students who are seriously interested in advanced studies an opportunity of exploring the areas of special interest to faculty who are primarily concerned with the fields of ecology and physiology.

Students intending to take a Major or Minor or Honours in Biology should consult the Department website and/or a Programme Advisor before completing registration.

- 6 additional credits from Biology at the 3/4000 level

Note: Courses with significant biological content offered by other departments may be approved as biology credits (to a maximum of 6 credits, by permission of the Biology Dept.)

BIOL 1211 (3CR)
WORLD ECOSYSTEMS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

This course will introduce students to the basic concepts of population, community and ecosystem level ecology. Topics will include population growth, competition, succession, community composition and the cycling of energy. Field and laboratory work will stress direct measurement and observation of natural situations that illustrate these concepts. Students will take this course at a field station that offers adequate housing and laboratory facilities. These field stations may be anywhere in the world, but would most likely be in the Maritimes, the Caribbean or the Canadian Rockies. This course is offered only during the spring/summer session through Continuous Learning and only to non-Science majors.

BIOL 1501 (3CR)
CELL BIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 1001, CHEM 1001; or permission of the Department
A course providing an introduction to the structure, organization and functions of the cell, which is the fundamental structural and functional unit of living organisms. Particular emphasis will be placed on eukaryotic cells. Topics to be discussed include membranes and organelles, communication within and between cells, membrane transport, the cell cycle, meiosis and mitosis. There is a laboratory component to this course.

BIOL 2101 (3CR)
POPULATION AND COMMUNITY BIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 1501; or permission of the Department
A course designed to introduce current concepts of population and community ecology through lectures, field trips and laboratory exercises, using local organisms whenever possible. Familiarity with these organisms, principally aquatic insects, will be obtained through field trip and laboratory exercises.

BIOL 2301 (3CR)
PLANT BIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 1501; or permission of the Department
An introductory course in botany designed to present the structure and function of plants with an emphasis on vascular plants. Topics considered will include comparative evolutionary history, and development and functional adaptations to the environment.

BIOL 2401 (3CR)
ANIMAL BIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 1501; or permission of the Department
A lecture and laboratory course introducing students to the structure and function of major groups of invertebrate and vertebrate animals on a comparative basis. Topics to be covered in lectures will include comparative anatomy and phylogeny, and the evolution and function of locomotory, digestive, excretory, respiratory, nervous and reproductive systems. Laboratory exercises will be based on observation of both preserved and living material.

GENETICS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 1501, CHEM 1021; or permission of the Department
An introduction to genetics which will address the seemingly paradoxical phenomena of genetic continuity and genetic variation of living beings. This will be achieved by examining the cellular and molecular basis of gene replication, recombination and mutation. Viruses, bacteria and eukaryotes of various levels of organismic complexity will serve as examples both in lectures and laboratories.

BIOL 3011 (3CR)
EVOLUTION

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2601; or permission of the Department
A lecture-tutorial course investigating modern theories of biological evolution and natural selection. Discussion of these ideas requires an understanding of the types of evidence for biological change in organisms, of Mendelian genetics and mechanisms of inheritance, of sources of genetic variability in natural populations and of genetic equilibrium of populations.

BIOL 3021 (3CR)
PALAEONTOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2301 and 2401; or permission of the Department
Life on earth did not always exist in the form we know it today. Both physical and biological aspects of the environment have changed repeatedly and dramatically over time. This course will provide an overview of the major fossil plant and animal taxa in the context of the history of life on Earth. Morphology and anatomy of organisms will be discussed in relation to accompanying changes in marine and terrestrial environments. The diagnostic features of the organisms used as time (biostratigraphy) and/or environmental (paleoecology) indicators will be emphasized when appropriate. We will discuss macroscopic and microscopic forms of life.

BIOL 3101 (3CR)
MICROORGANISMS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOC 2001; or permission of the Department
An introduction to the protists (algae, bacteria, fungi, protozoa) and to the viruses. The intent of this course is to make students familiar with the characteristics and nomenclature used to distinguish: (1) cells and viruses, (2) the major protists, and (3) sub-groups within each

APPLIED MICROBIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq:

BIOL 3411 (3CR)

ICHTHYOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2101 and 2401; or permission of the Department

This course provides an overview of the general biology of fish-like chordates, with particular emphasis on the teleost fishes, the most diverse and abundant taxonomic group of living vertebrates. Lectures will focus on adaptations that have allowed fishes to occupy most aquatic habitats and to become the most evolutionary successful group of vertebrates. Lectures will cover aspects of form and function, ecology and behaviour of evolutionary relationships. Laboratory exercises will provide students with practical experience at identifying specimens and learning about their form, function, behaviour, ecology and evolution.

BIOL 3451 (3CR)

ENTOMOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory/Field Trip 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2401; or permission of the Department

Insects surpass all other organisms in their diversity and numbers, comprising over two thirds of the earth's known animals. This course will introduce students to this class of organisms by covering the following six areas: structure, function classification and phylogeny, behaviour and ecology. Throughout the course, evolutionary forces influencing the animals and systems involved will be stressed. Discussions will emphasize the use of the comparative methods to determine what these forces might be.

BIOL 3501 (3CR)

NATIVE FLORA (VASCULAR PLANTS)

BIOL 3801 (3CR)
THEORETICAL AND EVOLUTIONARY ECOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2101, either BIOL 2301 or 2401; MATH 1111, 1121; or permission of the Department

This course begins with the classical growth curves, competition and predator-prey equations by Lotke, Volterra and others. The use of these simple mathematical models in niche and community theory is discussed, and the alternative approaches to interpreting natural communities are introduced (e.g. system analysis, neutral community models). The underlying assumptions are discussed in the light of modern neo-Darwinian and physiological approaches.

BIOL 3811 (3CR)
CONSERVATION BIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2101; or permission of the Department

The field of conservation biology applies to the principles of ecology, biogeography, and population genetics to the mitigation of human impact and the maintenance of global biodiversity. The course will familiarize the student with the concepts and principles of conservation biology and will encourage active debate about threats to ecological integrity and the ways scientists attempt to cope with such threats.

BIOL 3901 (3CR)
PLANT DEVELOPMENT

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2301 and BIOC 2001; or permission of the Department

A lecture and laboratory course designed to explore the question of development of anatomical structures within vascular plants. The role of heredity and environment in signalling pattern development from a single fertilized seed to the multicellular reproductive plant will be discussed. Particular attention will be paid to the function of plant growth factors as signal devices.

BIOL 3911 (3CR)
PLANTS AND HUMAN SOCIETY

Format: Lecture/Seminar 3 Hours

Prereq: First year level Biology; or permission of the Department

This course will deal with the interactions between plants and human societies from the time of the introduction of agriculture until the present. It will include the consideration of the evolution of vascular plants, especially those important to agriculture and forestry. It will emphasize the origins of agriculture on various continents; it will discuss economic botany and the present day commercial uses of plants. Consideration will be given to interrelations between plants and societies in their dietary, cultural and religious connotations. Finally, the course will consider world food shortages, either present or potential, and possible ways to alleviate these.

BIOL 3941 (3CR)
PLANT PHYSIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2301 and BIOC 2001; or permission of the Department

A lecture and laboratory course designed to present a general introduction to the physiology of plants. Topics that will be discussed include photosynthesis, from the level of light entrapment to that of the fixation of carbon dioxide; translocation of sugars and the storage of energy rich food reserves; transpiration and water loss from leaves, as well as uptake and water transport within the plant; and mineral nutrition including uptake and transport of nutrients as well as their distribution and use.

BIOL 4101 (3CR)
BEHAVIOURAL ECOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 3011, 3401; or permission of the Department

A course to explore the relationships between animal behaviour and ecology, emphasizing the behavioural strategies which animals have evolved to enhance their survival and to increase their reproductive success. Topics such as foraging, living in groups, resource defence, sexual selection, parental care, mating systems, altruism and communication will be discussed within a neo-Darwinian framework using optimality models and game theory.

BIOL 4111 (3CR)
FIELD ECOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory/Field Trip 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 2101, 3701; or permission of the Department

This course will introduce students to the basic principles of field ecology research, experimental design, and data analysis, through lectures, laboratories, field trips, course readings, and guest speakers. The course will focus on various techniques used in quantitative field ecology, including the design of observational studies, environmental impact assessments, and manipulative experiments used for the description and classification of habitats, and assessing the ecological factors that influence plant and animal distribution and abundance. Throughout the course we will also read, critique and discuss research papers from the primary ecological literature.

BIOL 4141 (3CR)
MYCOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: BIOL 3101 (or as a co-requisite); or permission of the Department

This course will give an overview of true Fungi (Ascomycetes, Basidiomycetes, Zygomycetes and Chytridiomycetes), and of the fungus-like Oomycetes. Structure/function relationships will be emphasized, as well as the significance of the various groups in ecology, medicine, plant disease and their use in industry.

BIOL 4701 (3CR)

TROPICAL MARINE BIOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Field Trip

Prereq: BIOL 2101, 2401, and one of BIOL 3361, 3371; and permission of the Department

This lecture and field course will introduce students to the fauna, flora and complex interactions in tropical habitats and allow independent research in such habitats. Habitats explored will be coral reefs, reef lagoons, mangrove swamps and rocky shores. Ecological and behavioural interactions of organisms in those areas will be stressed. The field component of this course will take place at a field station in the Caribbean for twelve days that include the week of Independent

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

CANADIAN STUDIES

With the establishment of the Edgar and Dorothy Davidson Chair of Canadian Studies in 1969, Mount Allison University developed its programme of Canadian Studies, at the time the only one of its kind in Canada. The programme was further strengthened in 1977 with the endowment of the Winthrop Pickard Bell Chair of Maritime Studies. The entire programme is designed for those students who wish to increase their knowledge of Canada, its history, institutions and culture.

Unity in the Programme is achieved by concentrating on the interrelationships of disciplines within the Canadian context. Participating disciplines include Economics, English, Fine Arts, French, Geography, History, Linguistics, Music, Political Science, Religious Studies, Sociology, and Anthropology.

The comprehensive nature of the Programme and its innate flexibility prepare the student for entrance to a wide range of careers and activities, in post-graduate studies in many areas of concentration, as well as in business, government, journalism, law, library science and social work.

Interdisciplinary B.A. Programmes

MINOR in Canadian Studies is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 12 from Canadian Studies 2001, 2011, 4600
- 12 from Canadian Studies 3101, 3111, 3121, 3301, 3311, 3401, 3411, 4250/1, 4651, 4661, 4950/4951, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

CANADIAN STUDIES COURSESCANA 2001 (3CR)*CANADA AND THE MODERN AGE: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE CANADIAN COMMUNITY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: CANA 2000

This course provides students with an introduction to contemporary Canada, with a particular focus on politics and economics. It examines the nature of the Canadian economy, the nature and organization of the Canadian state, current political issues, and Canada's place in world affairs.

CANA 2011 (3CR)AN INTRODUCTION TO CANADIAN CULTURE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: CANA 2000

This course provides an introduction to Canadian culture and identity. It examines key Canadian symbols and myths and various forms of cultural expression, including film, the arts, literature, and music in relation to Canadian national identity.

CANA 3101 (3CR)NATIVE PEOPLES OF CANADA: HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: CANA 2000 or CANA 2001 and 2011; or permission of the Coordinator of the Canadian Studies teaching programme

Exclusion: CANA 3100

This interdisciplinary course examines the historical, social, and cultural development of the Indian and Inuit peoples of Canada.

CANA 3111 (3CR)NATIVE PEOPLES OF CANADA: CONTEMPORARY ISSUES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: CANA 3100

This course explores the dynamics of contemporary First Nations culture in Canada from an interdisciplinary perspective. Among the key issues it seeks to explore are: the development of Native arts and culture in modern Canada, contemporary First Nations philosophy and ethics, and the politics of self-government among various First Nations.

CANA 3121 (3CR)MULTICULTURALISM, IMMIGRATION, AND DIVERSITY IN CANADA

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: CANA 2001, 2011 or (CANA 2000)

This course will explore the historical development of multiculturalism, its policy framework, alternative conceptions of plurality and diversity within Canada, demographic trends, and current controversies surrounding multiculturalism. It will conclude by looking at future developments in ethno-cultural diversity within Canada and where they might take the Canadian nation.

CANA 3301 (3CR)CANADIAN WOMEN: CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: CANA 2000 or CANA 2001 and 2011; or permission of the Coordinator of the Canadian Studies teaching programme

Exclusion: CANA 3300

This course provides an interdisciplinary perspective on the role and status of women in contemporary Canada. It focuses on the history of women's political movements, the changing status of women, the impact of the "second wave" of Canadian feminism, Native women, and recent immigrants.

CHEMISTRY

Chemistry is the branch of physical science involving the study of the composition of substances, the ways in which their properties are related to their composition, and the interaction of substances to produce new materials. This subject occupies a central place among the sciences - it draws on the facts and theories of physics, and on mathematics for the tools necessary to evaluate and express quantitative chemical information. Chemistry in turn, provides terminology, facts, principles and methods that are essential to many aspects of other sciences. The applications of chemistry in fields such as agriculture, medicine, pharmacology, pharmacy, engineering and oceanography are numerous.

The undergraduate programme is designed to provide students with an education in the main branches of the subject, namely, analytical, inorganic, organic, physical and computational chemistry. The broad objectives of the Department are summarized in the following definition of education:

Education is learning to appraise data critically, to try to think up an intellectual framework, to be able to test it, to be able to marshal facts, to be able to write about them, to be able to communicate with people who may - and almost certainly will - have less knowledge of those facts than you have, because they will be asking you questions about them with a view to taking some action. (F. Dainton)

Students interested in pursuing a Major or Minor in Chemistry or Chemistry Honours, should consult the Departmental Handbook and a faculty member of the department before completion of registration.

Disciplinary B.Sc. Programmes

MINOR in Chemistry is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from Chemistry 1001, 1021
- 3 from Mathematics 1111
- 9 from Chemistry at the 2000 level*
- 6 from Chemistry at the 3/4000 levels

*Where insufficient Chemistry courses are available at the 2000 level to fulfill this requirement, Chemistry courses at the 3/4000 levels may be substituted. Students cannot count CHEM 1501 or CHEM 2511 towards a Minor.

MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in Chemistry is 60 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from Chemistry 1001, 1021
- 9 from Mathematics 1111, 1121, 2111
- 3 from Mathematics or Computer Science
- 6 from Physics 1051, 1551
- 12 from Chemistry 2111, 2121, 2211, 2311
- 12 from Chemistry 3231, 3321, 3411, 3421
- 12 from Chemistry at the 3/4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

THE CHEMISTRY HONOURS PROGRAMME

Students with a special interest in Chemistry and those who, after obtaining the B.Sc. degree, wish to continue their studies at the post-graduate level, should consider following the Chemistry Honours programme. The courses required for the B.Sc. Chemistry Honours degree are all listed below. The required chemistry credits are ones that provide for study of the main branches of Chemistry in some depth. The required twelve credits from Mathematics and the six credits from Physics give minimum background essential for work in Chemistry. Honours students are given a special opportunity to participate in chemical research with faculty members in the Thesis (C4990) course. This research is normally carried out in the summer months following the third year.

HONOURS in Chemistry is 84 credits earned as follows:

- 36 credits as in first 5 lines of Major except that the 3 from Mathematics or Computer Science referred to in line 3 is restricted to Mathematics 2221
- 24 from Chemistry 3111, 3121, 3231, 3241, 3321, 3331, 3411, 3421
- 6 from Chemistry 4990
- 18 from Chemistry at the 3/4000 level or Biochemistry at the 3/4000 level (no more than 3 credits from Biochemistry)

CHEMISTRY LABORATORY WORK

Most Chemistry courses in the first three years have laboratory classes of about three hours duration each week as indicated in the course description.

GRADUATE STUDIES IN CHEMISTRY

The Department of Chemistry offers a programme of research courses leading to the Master of Science degree. The research interests in the Department are varied and further information can be obtained from the Department Head or from individual facesearch withateseu(t 0 1 M4 Tm(c

CHEM 1021 (3CR)

INTRODUCTORY CHEMISTRY II

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours, Regular Tutorials

Prereq: CHEM 1001; or permission of the Department

The quantitative nature of chemistry will be developed through a discussion of gases followed by consideration of kinetics and equilibrium. The thermodynamics introduced in the first term will be expanded together with a brief discussion of redox properties and electrochemistry.

CHEM 1501 (3CR)

CHEMISTRY IN MODERN SOCIETY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: None

Chemistry topics that have bearing on modern living and the environment will be discussed. Fundamental notions of modern chemistry will be developed and links with other disciplines identified.

CHEM 2101 (3CR)

ORGANIC CHEMISTRY FOR THE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: CHEM 1021; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: CHEM 2111, 2121, 2131, 2141, 2151

An introduction to the structure, reactivity and biological relevance of a variety of functional groups is presented. There will also be an introduction to spectroscopy.

CHEM 2111 (3CR)

ORGANIC CHEMISTRY I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: CHEM 1021; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: CHEM 2101, 2131, 2141

Structural basics including aromaticity, resonance, and stereochemistry will be emphasized and developed. An appreciation of the link between structure, mechanism and reactivity will be explored.

CHEM 2121 (3CR)

ORGANIC CHEMISTRY II

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: CHEM 2111; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: CHEM 2101, 2131, 2151

Functional group chemistry will be used to develop more sophisticated mechanistic skills. Problems in organic synthesis will be studied within a mechanistic context. An introduction to the interpretation of first order proton nmr spectra will be included.

CLASSICS

Classical Studies is concerned primarily with the cultures of Greece and Rome and their contributions to Western civilization. It is unique among modern academic disciplines in the breadth of its approach to its subject. In an age when undue specialization threatens the student in so many areas of learning, Classics is a field in which the specialist must be simultaneously linguist, literary critic, anthropologist, sociologist, and historian, not only of politics, but also of religion and art.

The cultures of Greece and Rome are fascinating and important in themselves, but seen in the context of their legacy the very special value that we attach to them comes to light. For many elements of our own culture - its language and literature, its social and political patterns, and its ideals - are deeply rooted in the experience and achievement of Greece and Rome.

The Department of Classics at Mount Allison offers the opportunity to study these ancient cultures through courses in history, mythology, art, archaeology, language, and literature. The history and literature of Greece and Rome can be approached either in the original languages or through courses using English translation. The study of ancient literature in translation makes it possible to gain an acquaintance with the thought and literary art of antiquity without studying Greek and Latin. But those deeply interested in the subject should bear in mind the importance of the languages themselves; the direct experience of the ancients through study of Greek and Latin, in order to be fruitful, should begin as early as possible in the university career.

Further information on courses, facilities, and special activities is available in the Curriculum Handbook issued annually by the Department of Classics.

The Humanities 1600 series is intended to provide an introduction to Humanities disciplines. These three-credit courses offered by the participating disciplines of Classics, History, Philosophy and Religious Studies are designed to acquaint beginning students with the methodologies typical of these disciplines and to familiarize them with

MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in Classical Studies is 60 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from Latin 1001, 1101, or Greek 1001 and 1101
- 36 from Classics, Greek, Latin, of which 24 must be from the 3/4000 level
- 18 from complementary courses in Arts and Letters and Humanities (or others), chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

HONOURS in Classical Studies is 72 credits earned as follows:

- 12 from Latin 1001, 1101, Greek 1001, 1101
- 6 from Latin 2001, 2101, Greek 2001, 2101
- 6 from Greek/Latin at the 3000/4000 level OR Classical Studies 4950/4951
- 48 from Classics/Greek/Latin, of which 33 must be at the 3/4000 level

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

CLASSICAL STUDIES COURSES

CLAS/HIST 1631 (3CR)

GREECE AND ROME: THE FOUNDATIONS OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Note: This course is cross-listed as HIST 1631 and may therefore count as 3 credits in either discipline.

The political and social history of ancient Greece and Rome will be surveyed with a focus on the themes of Law, Politics, War, and Society. Special attention will be paid to Athens in the fifth and fourth centuries B.C.E. and to Rome under Caesar Augustus.

CLAS 1641 (3CR)

CLASSICAL MYTHOLOGY: THE HERO'S QUEST

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

An introduction to the heroes and heroines of classical myth through the literature and art of ancient Greece and Rome. The course will examine the major cycles of Greek heroic saga, including stories about the Trojan War, the Wanderings of Odysseus, the exploits of Hercules,

CLAS/HIST 3001 (3CR)

DEMOCRACY AND IMPERIALISM IN CLASSICAL GREECE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: Second-year standing and three credits from any Classics or History course at the 1000 or 2000 level; or permission of the Department

Note: This course is cross-listed as HIST 3001 and may therefore count as 3 credits in either discipline.

CLAS 3601 (3CR)
THE BIRTH OF GREEK ART
Format:

LATI 4950/4951 (6/3CR)
 SPECIAL PROJECT IN LATIN
 Format: Independent Study
 Prereq: Permission of the Department
 Directed readings and study of a special topic in Latin language or literature, or in Roman history.

GREEK COURSES

GREK 1001 (3CR)
 Introductory Ancient Greek I
 Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Tutorial 1 Hour
 Exclusion: GREK 1000
 An introduction to the grammar and vocabulary of ancient Greek for students with no previous knowledge of the language. Through grammatical exercises, composition, and the reading of prescribed texts, the student will develop a basic understanding of the language of classical Athens. Three class periods per week, plus a fourth hour to be arranged after classes have begun.

GREK 1101 (3CR)
 Introductory Ancient Greek II
 Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Tutorial 1 Hour
 Prereq: GREK 1001; or permission of the Department
 Exclusion: GREK 1000
 A continuation of the study of the ancient Greek language. This course adds new grammar and continues to build vocabulary, while concentrating on the development of a reading facility in ancient Greek. Three class periods per week, plus a fourth hour to be arranged after classes have begun.

GREK 2001 (3CR)
 INTERMEDIATE GREEK
 Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
 Prereq: GREK 1000 or GREK 1101; or permission of the Department
 This course introduces students to the reading of unadapted passages from ancient authors. While the emphasis is on developing a fluency in reading Greek, it also reviews basic Greek grammar and presents some more advanced grammar and syntax.

GREK 2101 (3CR)
 INTRODUCTORY READINGS IN GREEK LITERATURE
 Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
 Prereq: GREK 2001; or permission of the Department
 A reading of selected works by Greek authors. This course will acquaint the student with some of the forms of ancient prose and poetry.

GREK 3001 (3CR)
 READINGS IN GREEK PROSE
 Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
 Prereq: GREK 2101; or permission of the Department
 The translation and study of the work of one or more Greek prose authors.

GREK 3101 (3CR)
 READINGS IN GREEK POETRY
 Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
 Prereq: GREK 2101; or permission of the Department
 The translation and study of the work of one or more Greek poets.

GREK 4001 (3CR)
 DIRECTED READINGS IN GREEK
 Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
 Prereq: Permission of the Department
 Detailed study of one or more Greek authors.

GREK 4950/4951 (6/3CR)
 SPECIAL PROJECT IN GREEK
 Format: Independent Study
 Prereq: Permission of the Department
 Directed reading and study of a special topic in Greek language or literature, or in Greek history.

COGNITIVE SCIENCE

COMM 2101 (3CR)

INTRODUCTORY FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING I

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Problem Based Learning 3 Hours

Prereq: 9 credits from any combination of the following 12 credits:

MATH 1111, ECON 1000 (or ECON 1001 and 1011), 3 credits in Computer Science; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: COMM 1111

This course introduces the accounting model and analysis of Financial Statements and the important concepts associated with them.

COMM 2121 (3CR)

INTRODUCTORY FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING II

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Problem Based Learning 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2101; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: COMM 1121

This course examines in greater detail the principles, practices and techniques of financial accounting first introduced in Commerce 2101.

COMM 2131 (3CR)

MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Problem Based Learning/Projects 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2101; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: COMM 2111

An introduction to the principles and practices of management accounting, with a concentration on the decision making process.

Topics include the use of accounting data in short-run and long-run decision making; managerial planning, control, and internal performance evaluation; and an introduction to variance analysis.

COMM 2201 (3CR)

FUNDAMENTALS OF MARKETING

Format: Lecture/Case Study 3 Hours

Prereq: 9 credits from any combination of the following 12 credits:

MATH 1111, ECON 1000 (or ECON 1001 and 1011), 3 credits in Computer Science; or permission of the Department

A consumer orientation is essential for effective marketing decision making. In this course, the meaning of products and services to the consumer is stressed. Students have the opportunity to develop fundamental skills in analysis, report writing, and presentations.

COMM 2211 (3CR)

MARKETING MANAGEMENT

Format: Case Discussion/Lecture/Projects 3 Hours

COMM 3131 (3CR)

COST ACCOUNTING

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Problem Based Learning 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2131; or permission of the Department

A study of the principles, procedures and techniques of analysis used in cost accounting. This course will cover operating budgets, product costing, predetermined costs, planning and control, relevant costs, and variance analysis.

COMM 3141 (3CR)

ACCOUNTING THEORY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2121; or permission of the Department

This course examines the historical development of accounting theory and practice with particular emphasis on the theory of income and asset valuation. Topics include the theoretical basis for past and present accounting principles and current issues and developments in accounting practice.

COMM 3151 (3CR)

TAXATION

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Problem Based Learning 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2131 and ECON 1000, (or 1001 and 1011); or permission of the Department

Exclusion: COMM 4111

The course will explore the basic principles of taxation in Canada, with emphasis on Canadian Income Tax. It stresses the effects of taxation on business decisions by individuals and corporations.

COMM 3161 (3CR)

INTRODUCTION TO AUDITING

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Exclusion: COMM 4151

This course introduces the role of auditing in society and the ethics and standards of professional conduct expected of auditors. It develops a conceptual understanding of key decisions made by auditors when examining and reporting on financial statements. It develops an appreciation of the complex environment in comprehensive or value-for-money audit on corporations and public institutions.

COMM 3211 (3CR)

CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR

Format: Lecture/Application 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2211; or permission of the Department

The course examines social, psychological, situational, and economic influences on the consumer decision-making process of individuals and families. It emphasizes new product adoption, marketing communications, and consumer research applications.

COMM 3231 (3CR)

MARKETING CHANNELS OF DISTRIBUTION

Format: Case Discussion/Lecture/Projects 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2211; or permission of the Department

Marketing strategy is implemented within the context of channels of distribution. This course studies distribution issues faced by manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers, and specialized institutions. It emphasizes inventory issues, product assortment decisions, channel negotiations, and channel change.

COMM 3251 (3CR)

INTERNATIONAL MARKETING

Format: Lecture/Case Study 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 2211; or permission of the Department

Marketing is the primary activity of business organizations. It is the process of identifying, selecting, and promoting a profitable exchange between the organization and its target market.

COMM 3361 (3CR)
ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND NEW VENTURE CREATION
Format:

COMM 4101 (3CR)

ADVANCED ACCOUNTING I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 3121; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: COMM 4121

COMM 4331 (3CR)

MANAGEMENT OF ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE

Format: Case Discussion/Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 3341; or permission of the Department

A study of organizational change from two perspectives: planned change and evolutionary change. In discussing planned change the focus is on the planning and implementation process for introducing innovation, restructuring, continual learning, and other types of organizational change. Topics include overcoming resistance to change and embedding the desired change. In discussing evolutionary change the focus is on the patterns of change in the cultures, structures, systems and processes in different types of organizations over extended periods of time in response to management initiatives, competitive pressures and changes in other organizational variables.

COMM 4341 (3CR)

BUSINESS ETHICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 3501 or COMM 3411, ECON 1000 (or ECON 1001 and 1011); or permission of the Department

This course deals with principles and practices of business ethics, with particular reference to Canada and North America. Issues investigated may include: the question of moral and legal responsibilities of corporations, ethics in business (including the various elements of ethics programmes such as codes of conduct, telephone hotlines, training, the use of ethics officers and of ethics consultants), different control styles (integrity vs compliance programmes), the problems associated with the prisoner's dilemma, the existence of implicit moral theory in economics and finance, the theory of the firm and agency theory, the problem of reputation, virtue ethics, ethical investment theory and practice, and the modelling of ethical problems, mainly using game theory.

COMM 4441 (3CR)

MANAGEMENT OF TECHNOLOGY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 3421; or permission of the Department

An examination of theories of technological innovation and technology diffusion in the industrial sector as background for a study of the strategic possibilities open to the firm's senior management for shaping its product and process technology. Topics include: invention and the commercialization of invention, organization of the R and D function, protection of new technology, importation and adoption of technology new to the firm, incremental innovation, shopfloor innovation and tinkering, and monitoring the technological environment.

COMM 4501 (3CR)

INVESTMENTS AND PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Field Trip 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 3501; or permission of the Department

Note: Counts as an Economics elective for students taking a Bachelor of Commerce or a Major, Minor or Honours in Economics.

Topics include theories of security valuation, portfolio selection, stock markets and economic efficiency, and capital market equilibrium. The behaviour of prices of stocks, bonds, and money market instruments will be investigated. Derivative securities will be introduced. Problems of evaluating the investment performance of individuals and investment management institutions will be discussed.

COMM 4511 (3CR)

CAPITAL MARKETS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMM 3501; or permission of the Department

Note: Counts as an Economics elective for students taking a Bachelor of Commerce or a Major, Minor or Honours in Economics.

An examination of the functions of financial intermediaries operating in our capital markets. Topics are selected from financial intermediation theory, capital markets, security and financial market regulations, risk and return in financial markets, and ethical considerations.

COMM 4521 (3CR)

CORPORATE FINANCE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

COMPUTER SCIENCE

The study of computing ranges from hands-on applications to pure theory, and includes the analysis of algorithms, the study of computer architectures, compilers and operating systems, networks, and software engineering. Our goal is to introduce students to all facets of the discipline, and to give them an appreciation of the historical, ethical, and social context of computing, and the responsibility of the computer professional and casual computer user in a modern society.

The Department offers a broad variety of courses and programs in Computer Science. Introductory courses may teach programming and theories of computing or offer a general overview of the use and application of popular microcomputer software; more advanced courses deal with topics ranging from artificial intelligence and the role of computers in society to the design and implementation of advanced hardware or software systems. All courses in the computing curriculum offer a blend of theory and practical application, with many of the offerings having a significant project component in which students are given the opportunity to apply the classroom material to real-world problems. Courses are designed to address the needs of a wide variety of users, from the casual to the professional. Some students may enrol

COMP 1721 (3CR)INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER SCIENCE II

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: COMP 1711; or permission of the Department

In the context of solving several larger problems, the techniques of topdown problem solving will be emphasized in order to further develop good programming style. Topics include: documentation, debugging and testing, string processing, internal searching and sorting, elementary data structures, recursion and algorithmic analysis. Further high-level languages may be introduced.

COMP 1751 (3CR)INTRODUCTION TO SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMMING

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 1111; or permission of the Department

An introduction to computer systems and the FORTRAN programming language. Special attention is given to the development and implementation of algorithms for solving computational problems.

COMP/MATH 2211 (3CR)DISCRETE STRUCTURES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 1111; or permission of the Department

Note: This course is cross-listed as MATH 2211 and may therefore count as three credits in either discipline.

Exclusion: MATH 2211 Discrete Structures

An introduction to the terminology and concepts of discrete mathematics, covering such topics as: sets, functions, induction, enumeration, graphs and trees, boolean algebras, semigroups and groups, and the design of algorithms.

COMP 2611 (3CR)DATA AND FILE STRUCTURES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 1.5 Hours

Prereq: COMP 1721; or permission of the Department

Effective methods of data organization, focussing on data structures and their algorithms via abstract data types with use of recursive procedures. Design of flexible file structures and related methods e.g. indexes, system file structures, hashed access. Object oriented programming techniques are used in depth.

COMP 2711 (3CR)OBJECT-ORIENTED DESIGN AND METHODOLOGY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: COMP 2611; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: COMP 2621 (Data and File Structures II), 2811

Continues the introduction to object-oriented programming begun in earlier CS courses, emphasizing further development of algorithms, data structures, software engineering, and the social context of computing.

COMP 2931 (3CR)INTRODUCTION TO SYSTEMS PROGRAMMING

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: COMP 1721; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: COMP 2911

This course is an introduction to programming at the systems level. Topics include: basic machine organization, assembly language, the UNIX environment, shell scripting, and C/C++ programming.

COMP/PHYS 3361 (3CR)DIGITAL SIGNAL PROCESSING AND ELECTRONICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: PHYS 2251 and PHYS 2801 and COMP 1711; or PHYS 1551 and COMP 2611 and COMP 2931; or permission of the Department

Note: This course is cross-listed with PHYS 3361 and may therefore count as three credits in either discipline

Exclusion: COMP/PHYS 3351

This course introduces students to both digital electronic circuits and digital signal processing, and would be valuable both for those planning to go on in technical careers in computer science or in physics, and for scientists who wish to develop tools for the collection and analysis of data. Topics to be covered include digital logic gates, Boolean algebra, counting circuits, digital signal conditioning, sampling considerations such as the Nyquist criterion, analog to digital and digital to analog conversion, Fourier Transform theory and application as FFT, correlation and convolution, digital filtering using finite impulse response and infinite impulse response circuits including the ztransform and filter design, and digital image processing including two dimensional FFT techniques, microprocessors, microcontrollers and digital signal processing integrated circuits.

COMP/MATH 3411 (3CR)NUMERICAL ANALYSIS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 1121, 2221, COMP 1711; or permission of the Department

Note: This course is cross listed as MATH 3411 and may therefore count as three credits in either discipline.

This course is an introduction to numerical methods for solving a variety of problems in mathematics, the natural sciences, and engineering. Topics to be studied include numerical solution of linear and nonlinear systems of equations, Gauss elimination, pivoting strategies, numerical stability, PLU factorization, tridiagonal matrices, polynomial and cubic spline approximation and interpolation.

COMP/MATH 3511 (3CR)LINEAR PROGRAMMING

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2221, 3 credits in Computer Science; or permission of the Department

Note: This course is cross listed as MATH 3511 and may therefore count as three credits in either discipline.

Among the topics covered are linear and integer programming, the simplex and revised simplex methods, duality theory and sensitivity analysis, and various applications.

COMP/MATH 3531 (3CR)
SIMULATION AND MODELING

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 1111; one of MATH 2311, 3311, PSYC 2001 and 2011;
3 credits in Computer Science; or permission of the Department

Note: This course is cross listed as MATH 3531 and may therefore count as three credits in either discipline.

An introduction to the simulation technique for studying mathematical models. Specific topics to be considered include: systems theory and system models, continuous system simulation, discrete system simulation, Monte Carlo methods, random number generators, and simulation languages. Emphasis will be placed upon computer implementation of the methods studied.

COMP 3611 (3CR)
ALGORITHM ANALYSIS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMP 2611, COMP/MATH 2211; or permission of the Department

The purpose of this course is to apply analysis and design techniques to nonnumeric algorithms which act on data structures. Designing efficient algorithms for internal and external sorting/merging/searching leads to notions of complexity (e.g. NP-hard problems) and to memory management techniques. Projects will involve system design of data management systems incorporating the theoretical aspects studied.

COMP 3651 (3CR)
ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Department

This course introduces general problem solving methods associated with automated reasoning and simulated intelligence. Topics include:

state space heuristic search theory, mechan 455.i36 409.534 Tm(Format:)Tj/F1 9.5 TMP/Mer4,E820euristic searchR2r 455.igch theory, mechan 455.iS24S

COMP/MATH 4651 (3CR)CRYPTOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMP1711, 1721, COMP/MATH 2211; or permission of the Department

This course is an introduction to cryptographic algorithms and to the cryptanalysis of these algorithms, with an emphasis on the fundamental principles of information security. Topics include: classical cryptosystems, modern block and stream ciphers, public-key ciphers, digital signatures, hash functions, key distribution and agreement.

COMP 4721 (3CR)SOFTWARE DESIGN

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Laboratory 2 Hours

Prereq: COMP 2611, 2711, 2931, 6 credits in Computer Science at the 3000/4000 level, and third or fourth-year standing; or permission of the Department

This course includes the study of software design topics such as software life cycle, requirements specification, and quality assurance. Software design topics such as strategies, intractable problems, concurrent systems, and data modeling are included. This course will include a large software project.

COMP 4911 (3CR)COMPUTER NETWORKS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: COMP 2611, 2931, and 3 credits from Computer Science at the 3/4000 level; or permission of the Department

An introduction to computer network applications and design. Topics will include: layered models, data transmission protocols, network topology, and security.

COMP 4951 (3CR)SPECIAL TOPICS IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

This course enables students to pursue their interests in areas not covered by other classes at the 4000 level. It usually involves independent study in a programme planned by the student and approved by the Department.

DRAMA

Students at Mount Allison with an interest in drama have several options open to them. In all cases, the programmes are designed to provide an education in drama rather than professional training for the theatre.

Interdisciplinary B.A. Programmes

INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR in Drama is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 12 from Drama/English 1701; Drama 3001, 3051, 3061
- 12 from Classics 3201, 3211; Drama 4011, 4021; English 2211, 3211, 3311, 3431, 3551, 3561, 3611, 3621; French 3271, 3371, 3471, 3671, 3771; Spanish 3001, 3011

INTERDISCIPLINARY MAJOR in Drama is 60 credits earned as follows:

Drama Core

- 18 from Drama/English 1701; Drama 3001, 3051, 3061, 4011, 4021

Dramatic Literature

- 24 to 30 from Classics 3201, 3211; English 2211, 3211, 3311, 3431, 3551, 3561, 3611 or 3621; French 3271, 3371, 3471, 3671, 3771; Spanish 3001, 3011, 3321 and from the following when their topic is dramatic literature: English 4000 series; French 4811; German 3231, 3301, 3311, 4030, 4950/4951 and Spanish 4950/51
- 12 to 18 from Complementary courses to be chosen in consultation with the Drama Programme Advisor. The following are particularly recommended: Anthropology 3231; Canadian Studies 2011, 3311; 3 English credits at the 1000 level, English 3621, 3871, 3850, 3881; Fine Arts 1901, 1911, 1921, 1931, 2001, 2011; French 2201, 2601, 3151, 3161, 3801; German 2701; Music 1001, 1011, 1101, 1111, 2000, 2679-4679, 3303; Sociology 3451; Women's Studies 3001

Note: Students may allow up to 6 credits in English for: Drama 3051 "Acting and Directing", Drama 3061 "Principles of Methods of Interpretation", and Drama 3001 "Dramatic Theory".

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

DRAMA COURSES

With the exceptions below, all descriptions of Drama courses available are given in the appropriate course description section. The only interdisciplinary drama courses offered are described below.

DRAM/ENGL 1701 (3CR)
INTRODUCTION TO DRAMA

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq or Coreq: ENGL 1201 or enrollment in the Interdisciplinary Major or Minor in Drama; or permission of the Department

Note: This course is cross-listed as ENGL 1701 and may be taken as three credits in either discipline.

Exclusion: DRAM/ENGL 2021

This course introduces students to conventions, forms, and devices of drama as they emerge under, and respond to, specific theatrical and cultural conditions.

DRAM 3001 (3CR)
DRAMATIC THEORY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: DRAM/ENGL 2021; or permission of the instructor

Exclusion: DRAM 3000

This course studies ways in which theatre practitioners have understood their art and the ways in which it reflects their world. Among topics to be explored are theories of representation, performance theory, tragic theory, comic theory, Naturalism, Expressionism, and Political Theatre.

DRAM 3051 (3CR)
ACTING AND DIRECTING

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Workshop 3 Hours

Exclusion: DRAM 3050

This course exposes students to theory and practice of acting and directing, exploring the spatial and temporal means by which actors and directors interpret a script on the stage. The class will study the themes, structure, rhythms, subtext, and visual dimensions of three or four dramatic texts, culminating in the production of one of them. The course is offered once every second year, in an alternating rotation with 3061.

DRAM 3061 (3CR)
PRINCIPLES AND METHODS OF PRODUCTION

Format: Lecture/Discussion/Workshop 3 Hours

Exclusion: DRAM 3050

This course introduces students to the means by which dramatic texts are given life in time and space on the stage. Principles and methods of set design and construction, costuming, lighting and sound design, and stage and theatre management are all explored, with special attention to three or four dramatic texts, one of which will receive production. The course is offered once every second year, in an alternating rotation with Drama 3051.

DRAM 4011 (3CR)
SPECIAL TOPICS IN THEATRICAL INTERPRETATION I

Format: Independent Projects

Prereq or Coreq: DRAM 3051, or 3061, or FREN 3151 and 3161; and permission of the Director of Drama

Individual projects in areas such as acting, directing, writing, and design are assigned to students by the Director of Drama. Practical results will be supported by written and/or visual materials as appropriate.

DRAM 4021 (3CR)
SPECIAL TOPICS IN THEATRICAL INTERPRETATION II

Format: Independent Projects

Prereq or Coreq: DRAM 4011; and permission of the Director of Drama

Individual projects in areas such as acting, directing, writing and design

ECON 1001 (3CR)

PRINCIPLES OF MICROECONOMICS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Tutorial 1 Hour

Prereq: Students should normally have completed a university preparatory level course in Mathematics

Exclusion: ECON 1000

A general introduction to the study of Economics and the nature of economic problems. Of primary concern is the behaviour of consumers and firms in different markets, and the results of their actions as manifested in production, costs, and prices. Market efficiency and market failure are also examined.

ECON 3611 (3CR)

INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION: THEORY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 2001 and ECON 2011; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: ECON 3611 (Industrial Organization and Policy in Canada)

An overview of central theories of industrial organization, examining market power, the theory of the firm, and strategic behaviour, within classic and dynamic oligopoly theoretical frameworks. The course makes explicit use of game theoretic techniques where appropriate. Topics may include: collusive and competitive behaviour, non-linear pricing, commitment and repeated games, and entry deterrence.

ECON 3621 (3CR)

INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION: POLICY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 2001 and ECON 2011; or permission of the Department

The economics of vertical and horizontal restraints. The course provides an introduction to regulatory economics and Canadian and International competition policy. Topics may include policy issues concerning the control of mergers, monopoly, predatory pricing, collusion, resale price maintenance, exclusive dealing, tying, and other contractual agreements including restrictions on contracting agents.

ECON 3711 (3CR)

LABOUR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 1000, (or 1001 and 1011); or permission of the Department

Note: Counts as a Commerce elective for students taking a Bachelor of Commerce or a Major or Minor in Commerce.

An introduction to the history and institutions of the North American industrial relations system. Topics include: labour management techniques used by firms; unions and union strategies; government regulation of pay and working conditions; and the structure of collective bargaining.

ECON 3721 (3CR)

LABOUR ECONOMICS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 2001 and 2011; or permission of the Department

An introduction to labour economics. Topics covered include: the demand and supply of labour, the Canadian labour market and income distribution, unemployment, poverty, and discrimination in Canada.

ECON 3801 (3CR)

ENVIRONMENTAL ECONOMICS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 1000, (or 1001 and 1011); or permission of the Department

The application of economic analysis in the study of environmental problems. Students will examine when and why markets often fail to allocate sufficient resources to environmental conservation, and will critically assess different policy instruments available to correct for the fundamental "market failure". Using the analytical methods developed in this course, the following type of policies will be examined: measures to control air and water pollution, the disposal of hazardous wastes, the protection of endangered species, and the control of cross border pollution, including the Canadian "Green Plan".

ECON 3821 (3CR)

NATURAL RESOURCE ECONOMICS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 2001 and 2011, MATH 1111; or permission of the Department

The application of economic analysis to questions of management, use, and/or conservation of natural resources. Students will be exposed to economic theories used in the study of renewable and non renewable resource industries. Particular attention will be given to resource industries important to the Atlantic Canadian economy (the fishery, forestry, agriculture, mining, and energy).

ECON 3901 (3CR)

INTERNATIONAL TRADE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 1000, (or 1001 and 1011); or permission of the Department

Issues examined will include the pure economic theory of international trade and important institutions (the FTA, NAFTA, the EC, GATT, etc.), plus problems and policies associated with trade in goods and services. Students will examine issues such as free trade and protectionism and the gains and losses resulting from globalization.

ECON 3921 (3CR)

INTERNATIONAL FINANCE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: ECON 1000, (or 1001 and 1011); or permission of the Department

ENGLISH LITERATURES

The majority of students take at least one English course during their undergraduate career. While the curriculum focuses on literary study, students are encouraged to develop an appreciation for the English language that will stand them in good stead in all other fields of academic and professional endeavour. English is, in fact, a central study. The language is every student's essential instrument of understanding and expression, and the subject-matter of the literature touches on every area of human knowledge and experience. More and more, under the increasing threat in our society to the Humanities and the values they embody, the vital importance of English must be stressed. With urgent reason, English has become "the central humanity."

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE ENGLISH PROGRAMME

The 1000 level series courses offer an introduction to a variety of approaches to the reading of and writing about literature, using texts from a range of genres and periods. At the 2000 level, students may choose from introduction to literary periods courses, Shakespeare course, and Canadian and American literature courses. These courses provide foundation for the 3000 level courses. At the 3000 level students are offered courses in traditional periods of English literature, various national literatures including Canadian and American, Postcolonial literature, dramatic literature, creative writing, film, genre and cultural studies.

Normally taken only in the fourth year when students are best equipped to benefit from them, the "Selected Topics" courses of the 4000 series provide an opportunity for students and faculty to develop their special interests. While various topics are offered from year to year at the 4000 level, students can pursue individual study and research under supervision (4951: Independent Study).

Disciplinary B.A. Programmes

MINOR in English is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 3 from English 1201
- 3 from English 1501, 1701, 1801
- 6 to 9 from English at the 2000 level
- 9 to 12 from English at the 3/4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in English is 60 credits earned as follows:

- 3 from English 1201
- 3 from English 1501, 1701, 1801
- 6 to 12 from English at the 2000 level including 2201 and 2301
- 24 to 30 from English at the 3/4000 level (3 credits each chosen from at least five of the eleven subject areas listed below: at least 9 credits must be chosen from the 4 subject areas prior to 1800 - that is from the 18th Century, the 17th Century, the Renaissance, and the Medieval periods)
- 18 credits from complementary courses in Arts and Letters and Humanities, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

HONOURS PROGRAMME

Students with a strong interest in and aptitude for the subject may wish to seek an Honours Degree in English. The requirements are sixty-six English credits, as outlined below. Students must apply to the Honours Coordinator to do Honours in January of their junior year. In the senior year Honours candidates must take English 4990, the Honours Thesis, in which a grade of at least B must be achieved for Honours.

HONOURS in English is 66 credits earned as follows:

- 42 credits as in the first four lines of the Major, including English 2211
- 6 from English 4990
- 18 from English at the 3/4000 level, including 3 credits each from two additional subject areas (for a total in the Honours programme of seven subject areas), chosen in consultation with the Honours Coordinator

Students are encouraged to take more than the minimal number of English courses required; this will give them a wider coverage of the subject. ("Core" selections often include the Shakespeare courses and one course in Canadian literature)

1. The subject areas and corresponding courses are as follows:
 - Medieval:
 - 3011, 3021, 3241 (if appropriate), 4221 (if appropriate)
 - Renaissance:
 - 3211, 3231, 3241 (if appropriate), 3311, 4221 (if appropriate)
 - 17th Century:
 - 3351, 3361, 4221 (if appropriate)
 - 18th Century:
 - 3411, 3421, 3431, 4221 (if appropriate)
 - 19th Century:
 - 3451, 3461, 3481, 3491, 4231 (if appropriate)

 - Literature by Women:
 - 3651, 3661, 4921 (if appropriate)
- Note: 4951 and 4990 fall outside the subject areas.
2. Each year the English Department prints, and publishes on the web, a Handbook which includes a detailed syllabus and the texts prescribed for each course offered in the English programme in the current year, together with information on classes and assignments. Since it is impossible to offer in any one year all the courses listed here at the 2000, 3000 and 4000 level, students must use the Department's Handbook as their guide for the coming year.

3. Students may allow up to 6 credits in English for: Drama 3051 "Acting and Directing," Drama 3061 "Principles of Methods of Interpretation," and Drama 3001 "Dramatic Theory."
4. The Major or Minor in Drama. See Drama Entry

SPECIAL REGISTRATION PROVISIONS 1000 AND 2000 SERIES

English 1111 and 1121 are companion classes that will fulfill the Arts and Letters distribution requirement for the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees. Students who wish to pursue courses in English at the 2000 level and above, are required to take English 1201.

DEPARTMENTAL ADVICE

At registration, students should consult with Departmental Programme Advisors in the selection of courses.

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

GEOGRAPHY

The Department of Geography offers courses in both Human and Physical Geography which contribute to the fulfilment of Honours, a Major and a Minor in Geography. These offerings also provide many courses that are integral to the Environmental Studies and Sciences programmes at Mount Allison.

Geography is about the study of 'place' at various spatial and temporal scales. An understanding of 'place' involves questions about the physical and environmental, social, cultural, economic, and political processes that have acted together to shape the complex 'place' structures that exist on our landscape. Geographers are particularly concerned with the linkages that bind 'places' together. These questions can be investigated at a variety of scales: local, regional national, and global, and they can be assessed from both contemporary and historical perspectives.

Through a system of intensive semester length courses, the Geography programme at Mount Allison aims to expose students to the approaches and substance of the academic discipline of Geography. Teaching approaches integrate lab work, field study, library and archival searching, as well as the employment of computer technologies as research tools. The Department of Geography is part of the Faculty of Social Sciences and its programmes connect very well with the disciplines in this group (Anthropology, Economics, Political Science, Sociology and Commerce). There are also strong links to disciplines in other Faculties including Biology, History, and Religious Studies, as well as to the interdisciplinary programmes in Environmental Studies and Sciences. In addition, students interested in Area Studies (e.g. American Studies, Canadian Studies, Hispanic Studies, French Studies, Japanese Studies, International Relations, etc.) will find it useful to explore Geography as a foundation for understanding these 'places'.

Disciplinary B.A. Programmes

MINOR in Geography is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from Geography 1201, 1401*
- 12 from Geography 2101, 2201, 2221, 2311, 2711, 2411, 2421
- 6 from Geography at the 3/4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

Note: * Students who have completed any one of the Geoscience courses may use this credit in place of Geography 1401.

MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in Geography is 60 credits earned as follows:

- 9 from Geography 1401*, 2411, 2421
- 9 from Geography 1201, 2101, 2201, 2221, 2311
- 9 from Geography 2711, 3401 or 3701, 3711
- 18 from Geography at the 3/4000 level, including 6 credits from the 4000 level
- 15 credits from complementary courses in the Social Sciences, History, Environmental Sciences, Women's Studies, Canadian Studies, or Biology, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

Note: * Students who have completed any one of the Geoscience courses may use this credit in place of Geography 1401.

HONOURS in Geography is 72 credits earned as follows:

- 60 credits as in the Major, plus:
- 6 from Geography 4990
- 6 from Geography at the 3/4000 level, including 3 from the 4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

GEOGRAPHY COURSES

GEOG 1201 (3CR)

INTRODUCTION TO HUMAN GEOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 1.5 Hours

Prereq: None

This lecture and laboratory course is an introduction to the general principles of analysis in human geography at a variety of spatial scales. City, regional and global environments are considered.

GEOG 1401 (3CR)

INTRODUCTION TO PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 1.5 Hours

This lecture and laboratory course provides an introduction to the general principles of Physical Geography. Emphasis is placed on exploring the various sub-disciplines of Physical Geography at a variety of spatial and temporal scales. This course will introduce the four fundamental spheres of Physical Geography: the hydrosphere, lithosphere, atmosphere and biosphere. Basic processes in the physical environment such as the seasons, layers of the atmosphere, the earth's energy budget and interactions with atmospheric processes will be introduced. Weather and its interplay within the hydrological cycle, as well as the fundamentals of climatology will be investigated.

Examination of the three basic rock types, tectonic activity and weathering of the earth's surface through fluvial and aeolian processes, as well as glacier erosion, and coastal processes will be initiated.

GEOG 2101 (3CR)

NATURAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: None

This course introduces key concepts and issues in natural resources management. Resource sectors of importance to the Canadian economy will be examined, including forestry, fisheries, wildlife, energy, mining, water, and agriculture. Particular emphasis will be placed on understanding the varied influences that environmental, socio-economic, and political factors have on patterns of resource utilization and resource management decision-making.

GEOG 2201 (3CR)
GEOGRAPHY OF ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: None

This course examines the changing spatial organization of the world industrial map since 1945 by comparing British and North American de-industrialization with the rapid growth of some sectors of newly industrialized countries. The effects of new production technology, changes in industrial organization and transnational corporations and new regional trading blocs on those changing patterns are discussed.

GEOG 2221 (3CR)
THE DEVELOPING WORLD

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: None

This course surveys the changing geography of the developing world. It examines the decline in traditional land systems and resource use, surveys current economic development strategies, and reviews the role of international aid and non-governmental organizations in these strategies.

GEOG 2311 (3CR)
INTRODUCTION TO CULTURAL GEOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: None

This survey of the main themes and approaches of cultural geographers evaluates concepts such as cultural area, ecology and landscape in the context of North American and European settlement patterns.

GEOG 2411 (3CR)
GEOMORPHOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: GEOG 1401; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: GEOS 2401

Note: Students who have taken any Mount Allison Geoscience course at the 1000 or 2000 level will be permitted to take this course.

Geomorphology is the science that explores the processes that shape the Earth's surface. The introductory part of the course deals with the large-scale relief features of the earth (e.g. mountains) and how they are shaped by the processes of weathering, erosion, and sedimentary deposition. The latter part of the course introduces landforms/landscapes that exist in glacial, fluvial, coastal, and desert environments and explores the geomorphic agents (e.g. running water) which control the formation and evolution of these landforms/landscapes.

GEOG 2421 (3CR)
WEATHER AND CLIMATE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: GEOG 1401; or permission of the Department

Note: Students who have taken any Mount Allison Geoscience course at the 1000 or 2000 level will be permitted to take this course.

This course highlights elements of weather and climate including the composition and thermal structure of the atmosphere, radiation and energy balances, global circulation, air masses, fronts and atmospheric disturbances, and climates of the world. Special emphasis is placed on recent climatic changes in the environment.

GEOG 2711 (3CR)
DATA ANALYSIS FOR GEOGRAPHERS

Format: Lecture/Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq:

GEOG 3321 (3CR)
GEOGRAPHY OF JAPAN

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Third-year standing, and at least one of GEOG 1201, 2311, HIST 1611; or permission of the Department

This course examines Japan's geography since 1860, emphasizing the importance of international trade and new technologies and their roles in forming new geographic relationships for Japan with other parts of East Asia and with the West.

GEOG 3401 (3CR)
RESEARCH METHODS IN PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours, Multi-Day Field Camp

Prereq: GEOG 2711 and third-year standing; permission of the Department

Exclusion: GEOG 3701

This is one of three 'techniques' courses for Geography students. This

GEOG 4301 (3CR)

SEMINAR IN AREA STUDIES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Any two of GEOG 2201, 2311, 3201, 3211 or 3301; or permission of the Department

HISTORY

As both a literary art and social science, History is an ideal instrument of liberal education. Defined as "the rational study of the significant past", it develops analytical and communication skills, fosters knowledge and understanding of the institutions, ideas, groups and individuals which have shaped our political, social and cultural world and contributes to reflective, articulate citizenship in a free, tolerant and humane society. History is also an excellent preparation for a large number of career choices as well as a pleasurable intellectual pursuit that will last a lifetime.

Without attempting to study all the people and places of the significant past, the Mount Allison History Department offers a rich variety of both subject matter and interpretive approach through individualized programmes designed to achieve both coherence and depth. Courses are regularly available at all levels in most major periods of Canadian, American and European history and are complemented when staffing permits by introductions to China and Japan. Together, they reflect a wide range of faculty interest - from politics, constitutional development and relations between nations to social, cultural and intellectual movements.

BASIC COURSES

The Humanities 1600 series is intended to provide an introduction to Humanities disciplines. These three-credit courses offered by the participating disciplines of Classics, History, Philosophy and Religious Studies are designed to acquaint beginning students with the methodologies typical of these disciplines and to familiarize them with the approaches taken, as well as the sorts of themes pursued and questions raised in these disciplines.

Students will normally take courses in sequential order from first through fourth years. Further information about specific courses, faculty members and special programs is available in the Department of History Handbook. Students should also be familiar with the university requirements for the B.A. degree, outlined in section 7.2 of the academic calendar.

Disciplinary B.A. Programmes

MINOR in History is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from the Humanities 1600 Series
- 18 from History above the 1600 level, including 6 from the 3/4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in History is 60 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from the Humanities 1600 Series
- 12 6 credits each chosen from two of the following subject areas:
 1. European History 2000 or 2010
 2. North American History 2410 or 2510
 3. Asia Pacific History 2700
- 24 additional credits in History at the 2/3/4000 level
- 18 credits from complementary courses in other departments, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

HONOURS in History is 66 credits earned as follows:

- 42 credits from the first three lines of the major, plus:
- 6 from History 4990
- 18 from History at the 4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The study of International Relations has traditionally focussed on the competition for power among rival states. Today, however, non-state and intergovernmental actors, such as non-governmental organizations, multinational corporations, transnational diasporas, and organizations like the United Nations also exert important influence in international affairs. The multiple dimensions of power go beyond the distribution of economic and military capabilities and include class, gender, culture, and discourse. The "international" in International Relations is moreover inseparable from domestic concerns and is as much about cooperation and compromise among international actors as it is about competition and conflict. The International Relations programme provides students with a multidisciplinary foundation for understanding the complexities of today's international affairs.

Interdisciplinary B.A. Programme

INTERDISCIPLINARY MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in International Relations is 72 credits as follows:

MATHEMATICS

Mathematics is a discipline which has been said to be the Queen of the Sciences, and is the foundation of most modern quantitative and qualitative studies. The permanence and universality of mathematics throughout the ages is a consequence of its very nature. Mathematics is cumulative, developing from the earliest use of numbers by prehistoric civilizations to the highly deductive nature of geometry as developed by the Greeks, from the practical applications of calculus developed in the seventeenth century to the modern use of number theory in

MATH 3031 (3CR)HISTORY OF MATHEMATICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 1121 (or 1131) and 6 credits from MATH 2111, 2121, 2211 and 2221

A survey of the history of Mathematics. Topics include: the achievements of early civilizations, the developments in Europe leading to the calculus and its consequences, the growth of rigor in the 18th and 19th centuries, the axiomatic method in the 20th century.

MATH 3111 (3CR)REAL ANALYSIS I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2111, 2121, 2211; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: MATH 3110

A systematic and rigorous study of the real numbers and functions of a real variable, emphasizing limits and continuity.

MATH 3121 (3CR)REAL ANALYSIS II

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 3111; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: MATH 3110

A continuation of Mathematics 3111 including the study of concepts from the Calculus, including differentiation and integration.

MATH 3131 (3CR)MATHEMATICAL METHODS FOR DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2121 and 2221; or permission of the Department

This course is designed primarily for students in mathematics, physics, or engineering. It covers systems of 1st and 2nd order ordinary differential equations, Laplace and Fourier transforms, power series solutions for equations with singular points, and Fourier series.

MATH 3141 (3CR)VECTOR CALCULUS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2111; or permission of the Department

Topics covered include vectors in the plane and in three space, vector functions, curves, tangent and normal vectors, velocity and acceleration; curvature and arc length, directional derivatives and the gradient, vector fields, line integrals, the Fundamental Theorem of line integrals, divergence and curl, Green's Theorem, parametrized surfaces, surface area and surface integrals, flux, Stokes' Theorem, and the Divergence Theorem.

MATH 3151 (3CR)AN INTRODUCTION TO MATHEMATICAL MODELLING

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2121 and 2221; or permission of the Department

This course provides an introduction to the nature of theoretical mathematical modelling illustrated by examples drawn from the physical and engineering sciences, pursuit and conflict problems, population dynamics (mathematical ecology), traffic flow, sociological problems (voting, kinship, cultural stability) and other areas depending on the interests of the class.

MATH 3211 (3CR)MODERN ALGEBRA I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2211 and MATH 2221; or permission of the Department

An introduction to the theory of groups and rings.

MATH 3221 (3CR)ADVANCED LINEAR ALGEBRA

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2221; (MATH 2211 is recommended); or permission of the Department

An advanced course in linear algebra, covering selected topics from: change of basis and similarity of matrices; multilinear forms and determinants; canonical forms, Primary Decomposition Theorem, Jordan form; semisimple and normal operators; spectral theory; quadratic forms; applications to geography, electrical networks, linear programming, differential equations, or the geometry of conic sections.

MATH 3231 (3CR)NUMBER THEORY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2211; or permission of the Department

An introductory half-course in the theory of numbers covering such topics as: Euclidean algorithm, Fundamental Theorem of Arithmetic, congruences, diophantine equations, Fermat and Wilson Theorems, quadratic residues, continued fractions, Prime number theorem.

MATH 3251 (3CR)INTRODUCTION TO COMBINATORICS AND GRAPH THEORY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2211, 2221; or permission of the Department

Topics covered include enumeration (permutations and combinations, inclusion-exclusion and pigeonhole principles, recurrence relations and generating functions), algorithmic graph theory (minimum-weight spanning trees and minimum-weight paths) and combinatorial design theory (latin squares and finite geometries, balanced incomplete block designs, triple systems).

MATH 3311 (3CR)PROBABILITY AND STATISTICS I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MATH 2111; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: MATH 3310

An introduction to the mathematical theory of probability. Topics covered include: sample space, events, axioms, conditional probability, Bayes Theorem, random variables, combinatorial probability, moment generating functions, transformations of random variables, univariate and joint distributions with reference to the binomial, hypergeometric, normal, Gamma, Poisson, and others; convergence of sequences of variables, central Limit Theorem.

Language of Instruction and Assignments

All courses in the French curriculum are generally delivered in French alone, and all assignments, both oral and written, are to be completed in French. Exceptionally, two courses offer students the option of completing written work in English: French 2201 (Cinéma du monde francophone) and French 2841/2851 (Identités culturelles de la France contemporaine). In the case of the latter, students who intend to apply the credits towards the completion of a minor, major or honours programme must do the written work in French and register for the

GERM 3231 (3CR)
MODERN GERMAN LITERATURE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: GERM 2000; or permission of the Department

Selected works of writers from German-speaking countries will be read. These works will reflect on the partition of Germany after World War II into politically opposing camps, the economic miracle in West Germany with its social implications, and the continued pre-occupation of a united Germany with its fascist and communist past. This course is designed to develop the student's reading ability and aural and oral skills in German.

GERM 3301 (3CR)
ENLIGHTENMENT LITERATURE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: GERM 2000; or permission of the Department

A study of representative works of those authors who helped shape the period generally known as the German Enlightenment, the first age in German cultural history which recognized the instrumental role people can play in determining their own destiny in this world (cf. Kant's definition of "Aufklärung"). Authors to be studied include Brockes, Haller, Gellert, Lessing, and Wieland.

LINGUISTICS

Like other inquiries which are central to human experience, language has long been the focus of intellectual examination. Speculation on the nature of language appears in the works of Plato, Aristotle and other Greek philosophers. Although a number of disciplines, from literary studies to computer science, share the study of language with linguistics, the focus of linguistics is the scientific study of language. Linguists are interested in how human language is organized in the human mind and in how the social structures of human communities shape language to their own purposes, reflecting themselves in language use.

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

LINGUISTICS COURSES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
Prereq: Registration in the first year of the B.Mus. or B.A. (Major or Honours in Music), Minor in Music; or permission of the Department
Coreq: MUSC 1101
This is the first course in a series designed to introduce students to the history and literature of music in the Western World. The first part of the course will provide an overview of the various style eras and genres. This will be followed by a survey of music from the Medieval and Renaissance eras. Changing concepts, styles, forms and media are considered and compared through readings, score study, recordings, library research, and classroom performance.

MUSC 1211 (3CR)
MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE II
Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
Prereq: MUSC 1201; or permission of the Department
Coreq: MUSC 1111
A survey of music history and literature of the Baroque period.

MUSC 2001 (3CR)
INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC
Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
Exclusion: MUSC 2000
This course will include an introduction to the basic elements of music. The development of listening skills and an understanding of these elements will be fostered through an examination of various styles which will include world music and/or contemporary popular music.

MUSC 2011 (3CR)
Survey of Western Music
Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
Exclusion: MUSC 2000
In this course, form and style will be interrelated with historical considerations in a chronological approach to the history of western music. Live performances will be included whenever possible.

MUSC 2201 (3CR)
MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE III
Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
Prereq: MUSC 1211; or permission of the Department

SEMINAR IN MUSIC HISTORY I/II

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MUSC 3251; or permission of the Department

Note: Students may register for MUSC 3211 and/or 4221 more than once, provided the subject matter differs.

A senior seminar on the formulation of critical concepts as they relate to specific styles and works, including questions of analytical systems, the formation of values, reception theory, aesthetics, and allied matters. Emphasis will be placed on the development of research, bibliographical, and writing skills, as well as on the presentation of oral reports. This course is especially useful for students contemplating graduate studies in Musicology.

MUSIC EDUCATION

Note: Music 3303, 3311, 4311, and 4363, are open to B. Mus. and B.A. (Honours or Major in Music) students; other students by permission of the Department, contingent on the student's musical background and completion of the necessary prerequisite(s). Registration in other instrumental methods courses is also subject to the availability of musical instruments. Students should consult the timetable carefully regarding the semester(s) in which these courses are offered.

MUSC 3303 (3CR)
VOCAL METHODS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 2 Hours

This is a practical course designed to acquaint the student with the skills required for good singing. The basic physiology, acoustics and co-ordination of singing will be studied in a class situation. The emphasis will be on vocal production and expression and will include solo singing of standard repertoire, with critical analysis by the class of vocal technique and style. The application of vocal principles to choral singing will also be considered.

MUSC 3311 (3CR)
ELEMENTARY METHODS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MUSC 2111; or permission of the Department

This course is designed to introduce students to the topic of music and young children, and to acquaint them with current philosophies and methodologies with an emphasis upon those of Zoltan Kodály and Carl Orff. It is designed for any music students who are interested in the topic of music and young children and is not limited to those students planning to teach in the public schools.

MUSC 3323 (3CR)
BRASS METHODS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 2 Hours

A practical course designed to acquaint the student with the basic skills necessary for the playing and teaching of the instruments of the brass family. Concentration is on basic embouchure formation, posture, hand position, fingering or slide position, proper breathing, and methodology.

MUSC 3333 (3CR)
WOODWIND METHODS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 2 Hours

A practical course designed to acquaint the student with the basic skills necessary for the playing and teaching of the instruments of the woodwind family. Concentration is on basic embouchure formation, posture, fingering, proper breathing, and methodology.

MUSC 3343 (3CR)
STRING METHODS I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 2 Hours

A practical course designed to acquaint the student with the basic skills necessary for the playing and teaching of the instruments of the bowed string family. Instrumental assignment is made by the instructor, and the student plays one instrument (violin, viola, cello, or bass) for the duration of the course. Concentration is on basic techniques of posture, position, bowing and left-hand finger patterns.

MUSC 4311 (3CR)
SECONDARY METHODS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: MUSC 3311; or permission of the Department

This course, which is a continuation of Music 3311, covers several aspects of music instruction at the secondary level including choral, instrumental, and general music programmes. An introduction to the use of technology in music programmes and classroom harmony instruments will also be included.

Format: Private Instruction 1 Hour, Master Classes

Prereq: For 1500: audition; for advanced levels: successful completion of the preceding course in the sequence

Applied courses involve individual weekly instruction in vocal and instrumental music, and facilitate technical command, interpretive insight, and understanding of pedagogical procedures. These courses stress the development of the ability to perform with competence and musical understanding while providing a comprehensive background of music of various periods, styles and composers, thus allowing students to interpret representative works of the past and present.

MUSC 4590/4593 (6/3 CR)

RECITAL

Format: Private Instruction 1 Hour, Master Classes

Prereq: Students enrolling in 4590 must attain at least A- in MUSC 3500, and must have participated in at least one half-recital. Students enrolling in 4593 must attain at least A- in MUSC 3500, and must have participated in at least two collegia concerts (or the equivalent) since enrolling in the B.Mus. programme. Students enrolling in 4590 or 4593 must have completed MUSC 2111 and 2211.

Preparation and execution of a public recital programme (30 minutes for 4591 or 60 for 4590) under the supervision of the student's principal teacher. The programme must be planned at the end of the student's third year in consultation with the teacher, and it must be submitted to the department for approval.

ACCOMPANIMENT

Format: Private Instruction 1 Hour

Prereq: MUSC 3603; or permission of the Department

This course is designed to allow fourth year keyboard majors to concentrate on accompaniment in lieu of the Chief Practical, 4500. The student will be expected to accompany a full recital, or two half recitals, or the equivalent thereof in the accompaniment of several individuals or a major ensemble or ensembles. Permission to enroll will be granted and instruction will be given by the Chief Practical instructor.

PERFORMANCE ELECTIVES

Students should note that most of these electives are 3 credit courses which run through both terms. For complete information please consult the timetable.

MUSC 2521 (3CR)

DICTION FOR SINGERS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

This course will acquaint students with the symbols and sounds of the International Phonetic Alphabet and with the application of the IPA to the English, French, German, Italian, Latin and Spanish languages. The differences between spoken and sung language will be explored and the physical processes required to produce the various sounds will be investigated and practised.

MUSC 2603 (3CR)

ACCOMPANIMENT I

Format: Lecture/Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: MUSC 1500; permission of the Department

This course will assist students in acquiring the basic knowledge and skills necessary for providing an artistic accompaniment. Students will examine different styles of music including Art Song, Lieder and Oratorio, as well as accompaniments for instrumental works and orchestral reductions.

MUSC 2613 (3CR)

CHAMBER MUSIC I

Format: Private Instruction 1 Hour

Prereq: MUSC 2613 open to 2nd, 3rd, and 4th year music students in their major instrument with the permission of the applied music instructor, the course instructor, and the coordinator; others by permission of the Department

These courses (taken in sequence) are designed to give students practical experience in the art of chamber music performance. Students will be assigned to instructors and repertoire (30 minutes minimum) will be chosen and approved in the Spring prior to the beginning of the next academic year. There will be two public performances by each chamber group.

MUSC 3413 (3CR)

CHORAL CONDUCTING

Format: Lecture/Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: MUSC 2111; or permission of the Department

Coreq: MUSC 3303

A practical course designed to train the student in the fundamentals of conducting. Students will help each other by acting as an ensemble for student conductors.

MUSC 3423 (3CR)

INSTRUMENTAL CONDUCTING

Format: Lecture/Laboratory 3 Hours

Prereq: MUSC 2111; or permission of the Department

A practical course designed to train musicians in fundamentals of Instrumental conducting.

MUSC 3603/4603 (3CR)

Format:

MUSC 4613 (3CR)
CHAMBER MUSIC III
Format: Private Instruction 1 Hour
Prereq: MUSC 3613; or permission of the Department

GENERAL ELECTIVE

MUSC 4951 (3CR)
SPECIAL TOPICS IN MUSIC
Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours
Prereq: Completion of the core Music courses in the area of the Special Topics elective; or permission of the Department
Note: This course may be used as a Group B Music Elective in the Bachelor of Music degree.
This course allows students the opportunity to pursue a topic of special interest not covered in other Department of Music courses, or a topic not covered in depth by the course offered.

THE FOLLOWING ARE ONE CREDIT ENSEMBLES:

MUSC 1629-4629 CHAMBER ORCHESTRA
MUSC 1639-4639 SYMPHONIC BAND
MUSC 1649-4649 INSTRUMENTAL JAZZ ENSEMBLE
MUSC 1659-4659 ELLIOTT CHORALE
MUSC 1669-4669 CHORAL SOCIETY
MUSC 1689-4689 LARGE ENSEMBLE OF LIKE INSTRUMENTS (BRASS CHOIR)
MUSC 1699-4699 VOCAL JAZZ ENSEMBLE
MUSC 2679-4679 OPERA WORKSHOP
Prereq: Permission of the Department

RECITAL AND CONCERTS

Performances by students, faculty, and guest artists form an important part of the musical life of Mount Allison. The University Performing Arts Series brings to the campus top performers of international rank. Various music faculty ensembles provide an "in residence" group of performers. Frequent student recitals and Collegia Musica provide further enrichment as well as opportunities for students to gain valuable listening and performance experience.

PRACTICE FACILITIES

Practice facilities are available in the Department of Music for non-music majors from 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. daily. Other times are reserved for students registered in Applied Studies courses: Chief Practical, Recital, Accompaniment and Chamber Music.

PHILOSOPHY

Philosophy is the endeavour to understand the basic questions that arise for us in our world, and to formulate this understanding in a critical manner. Traditionally, these questions have touched upon what can be known, what can be valued, what our own position is socially and individually- above all, how we can know what we think we know.

The Department believes that careful study of the great works of the past and present provides the best access to philosophical questions. Thus many of our courses concentrate the student on developments in the history of philosophy, from the sixth century B.C. to the twentieth century. Courses in logic, ethics, metaphysics, philosophy of science and the philosophy of mind examine special issues in these developments and are compared to the formulation of these same issues in Asian philosophy.

The study of philosophy invites critical and imaginative consideration of the questions themselves.

Only thereby can the student learn to appreciate their force, and the variety of responses to them. Since philosophical questions are deeply imbedded in the development of western civilization, one can study philosophy in conjunction with a wide range of other disciplines. Moreover, our students have found it a useful background for subsequent endeavours in fields such as law, civil service, medicine, theology, and further graduate study.

Disciplinary B.A. Programmes

MINOR in Philosophy is 24 credits, earned as follows:

- 6 from the Humanities 1600 Series
- 6 to 12 from Philosophy at the 2000 level
- 6 to 12 from Philosophy at the 3/4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor methodologies typical of these disciplines and to familiarize them with the approaches taken, as well as the sorts of themes pursued and questions raised in these disciplines.

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

PHIL 1601 (3CR)
PLATO'S REPUBLIC

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

A study of Plato's The Republic can serve as an introduction to almost all the issues that are central to our western philosophical tradition.

The problems of virtue (temperance, courage, wisdom), justice, order (social, political and cosmological), knowledge, the nature of the psyche, beauty, and of reality in general will all arise in the study of this text, providing a good basis for discussion.

PHIL 1611 (3CR)
SELF, SOCIETY AND FREEDOM

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

This course will examine various accounts given of 'the self' in the history of ideas. What values can be accorded to human beings are dependent upon our accounts of the nature of the self, especially in relations: social, political, intellectual, emotional. The main theme to be explored will revolve around the issue of whether freedom is anything more than an illusion formulated to control the population.

PHIL 1651 (3CR)
THE CHANGING IMAGE OF NATURE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Our intellectual heritage is laced with shifting and conflicting attitudes towards "Nature" which impact everything from how we can come to know about nature, scientifically, to ethical implications for how human beings relate to other natural beings. This course will use readings from the history of western philosophy, especially from the early modern era, to assess the extent to which we have inherited these convictions or developed alternatives to them.

PHIL 2401 (3CR)
INTRODUCTORY AESTHETICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from the Humanities 1600 Series; or permission of the Department

An introduction to the idea of beauty in such thinkers as Plato, Aquinas, Kant, and Heidegger. Topics to be discussed include the relationship of beauty to truth, the experience of the sublime, and the philosophy of art.

PHIL 2511 (3CR)
INTRODUCTORY PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from Humanities 1600 Series; or permission of the Department

Successful science claims to give us knowledge of what exists in the universe, and it claims to explain why what happens in a given localized system happens. The italicized words in the last sentence indicate philosophical assumptions within science which this course will explore. Based on historical cases, philosophical interpretations will be compared from logical positivism to Kuhnian paradigms, and the most recent critiques from social constructivism and feminism.

PHIL 2611 (3CR)
INTRODUCTORY LOGIC I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from Humanities 1600 Series; or permission of Department

A study of and exercise in the elementary forms of focussed thinking. Specific topics include the nature of categorical formulation, the techniques for distinguishing valid from invalid reasoning (deductive inference), and the principles violated in typical varieties of fallacious reasoning.

PHIL 2621 (3CR)
INTRODUCTORY LOGIC II

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: PHIL 2611; or permission of the Department

A study of and exercise in more advanced forms of focused thinking. Specific topics include the Greek understanding of the basis and goal of learning (inductive inference) and the modern logical reinterpretation of deductive, inductive, and fallacious reasoning.

PHIL 2701 (3CR)
INTRODUCTORY ETHICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from Humanities 1600 Series; or permission of the Department

An introduction to the history and philosophical problems of ethics in the western tradition. This will acquaint the student with a number of received traditions based on metaphysical, religious, rational, and pragmatic grounds, as well as introduce certain fundamental perennial problems of moral decision-making.

PHIL 2801 (3CR)
INTRODUCTION TO METAPHYSICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from Humanities 1600 Series; or permission of the Department

An introduction to the study of metaphysics understood broadly as the study of the fundamental nature of reality. This will include the study of various themes including the nature of substance, divinity, causation, appearance and reality, the one and the many, mind and matter, as they appear in the discussions of the world's great philosophers from Lao Tzu to Shankara, and from Aristotle to Bertrand Russell.

PHIL 3000 (6CR)ANCIENT PHILOSOPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from 2000-level Philosophy; or permission of the Department

The issues which develop before and with Plato establish the framework for all subsequent philosophic reflection. This course will examine some of these issues as they appeared prior to Plato and will employ these "pre-Socratics" as an entry into Plato's philosophy. Subsequently, aspects of Aristotle's thought will be explored as alternatives to and developments of Plato's philosophy.

PHIL 3221 (3CR)MODERN PHILOSOPHY: THE RATIONALIST TRADITION

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from 2000-level Philosophy; or permission of the Department

An investigation of the leading seventeenth century continental thinkers who formulated the great a priori systems. The capacity and function of human reason fully to understand the world is a theme common to these thinkers, and constitutes one of the major concerns of the course, a concern balanced by investigation of why these systems have reached such diverse answers to the substantive issues of how the world is to be understood.

PHIL 3231 (3CR)MODERN PHILOSOPHY: THE EMPIRICIST TRADITION

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from 2000-level Philosophy; or permission of the Department

An investigation of the thought of the English language thinkers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. These authors, among whom are to be counted Locke, Berkeley and Hume, in part may be understood as reacting to the a priori tradition examined by Philosophy 3111. But they also make claims that are not merely reactive, and the extent to which one or more of them proposes a coherent interpretation of the extent and the limitations of human understanding will be investigated.

PHIL 3331 (3CR)MODERN SOCIAL AND POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from 2000-level Philosophy; or permission of the Department

An investigation of the early foundations of modern political liberalism with a special concentration on the concepts of the state of nature, autonomy, and social contract. Authors considered will include: Machiavelli, Hobbes, Hume, Spinoza, Locke, Mill and Rousseau.

PHIL 3421 (3CR)NINETEENTH CENTURY AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from 2000 level Philosophy; or permission of the Department

A study of the principles of the American spirit as early formulated in the works of such authors as Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin and Walt Whitman, H.D. Thoreau and R.W. Emerson. Central to the American spirit is the concern for individuality and practicality.

PHIL 3451 (3CR)TWENTIETH CENTURY AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from 2000-level Philosophy; or permission of the Department

A study of selected American thinkers from Henry Adams to the present, including William Faulkner and John Dewey.

PHIL 3511 (3CR)PHILOSOPHY OF THE LIFE SCIENCES

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Normally Philosophy 2511 is expected. However B.Sc. students already doing 3/4000 level work in their own field, and students in either the Environmental Science or Environmental Studies programs, will be admitted; or permission of the Department

In recent decades the philosophical assumptions underlying the life sciences have been seen increasingly as distinct from the physical sciences. This course will examine this difference as well as the linkage between them, then turn to the philosophical issues within evolutionary theory, the notion of species and problems of classification, persistent controversies surrounding sociobiology, genetic control, use of animals in research, and the application of bioethics.

PHIL 3631 (3CR)SYMBOLIC LOGIC I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Three credits from 2000-level Philosophy; or permission of the Department

This is a basic course in Symbolic Logic, concentrating on the nature of logic, methods of deduction, quantification theory, and the logic of relational statements.

PHIL 3641 (3CR)SYMBOLIC LOGIC II

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: PHIL 3631; or permission of the Department

Building upon the work of Philosophy 3631, this course considers axiomatic systems (mainly Russell's), metalogical induction (regarding consistency, completeness, independence, and the like), axiomatic set formation (mainly Zermelo's), and theory of logic.

PHIL 3711 (3CR)BIOMEDICAL ETHICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: Philosophy 2701; or permission of the Department

This course will consist of the examination of a number of contemporary issues, such as gene therapy, abortion, reproductive technologies, euthanasia, HIV testing and confidentiality, organ retrieval, and advanced directives. In a framework of health, we will discuss larger philosophical questions such as: the possibility of assigning and comparing values, the nature of the human self, the possibilities of agency and responsibility, duties to society, gender and health, the meanings of technology, and social justice. While the focus of this course is not on ethical theory, we will make use of classical moral theories and principles to frame our analyses.

PHIL 3721 (3CR)

ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: PHIL 2701; or permission of the Department

After reviewing traditional attitudes toward the environment, this course

PHYS 1551 (3CR)
GENERAL PHYSICS II
Format:

PHYS/COMP 3361 (3CR)

PHYS 3821 (3CR)

QUANTUM MECHANICS I

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: PHYS 3811 and MATH 2221; or permission of the Department

This course is an introduction to formal quantum mechanics: the matrix formulation, harmonic oscillator, perturbation theory, two-state systems, multiparticle systems, and an introduction to the general theory of angular momentum.

PHYS 4911 (3CR)
CURRENT TOPICS IN PHYSICS

Format: Seminar

Prereq: PHYS 3811; or permission of Department

This course will introduce students to current topics and trends in physics which are not represented in other courses in the curriculum. This will be a seminar format course with sessions led by students, faculty and guest speakers. A key part of the course will be development of skills for identification and critical evaluation of primary literature in physics.

SPECIAL TOPICS

Format: Independent Study/Term Paper

Students may select up to two three credit courses from topics to be approved by the Department. This choice is normally available only to fourth year Physics students.

PHYS 4990 (6CR)
HONOURS THESIS

Format: Independent Study/Thesis

Normally, a student electing this course is expected to accomplish work equivalent to any fourth year course. Students are encouraged, but not the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

POLITICAL SCIENCE COURSES

POLS 1000 (6CR)

INTRODUCTION TO POLITICAL SCIENCE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

An introduction to the principal areas of study in political science. This includes the nature of politics, the government of Canada, political institutions, and international relations.

POLS 2001 (3CR)

DEMOCRATIC THOUGHT

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: POLS 1000; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: POLS 2001 (Issues in Political Thought)

An introduction to democratic thought from its origins in the ancient polis through to its modern incarnation in the writings of Rousseau, Tocqueville, John Stuart Mill and in debates among selected contemporary theorists. Particular emphasis will be placed on the central conflict between participatory and elite models of democratic citizenship.

POLS 2101 (3CR)

CANADIAN GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

Format: Lecture/Discussion 3 Hours

Prereq: POLS 1000; or permission of the Department

An introduction to the major issues of public policy in Canada, and their treatment by the federal government.

PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology is the scientific study of mind and behaviour. It is a biological, a social, and a cognitive science. As a biological science, it studies the physiological mechanisms and evolutionary origins of mental and behavioural phenomena. As a social science, it studies personality and interpersonal relations and their bases in social interaction, cognition and emotion. As a cognitive science, it studies such processes as sensation and perception, abstract thinking, reasoning, language, and memory. Developmental psychology combines all three aspects in taking for its subject matter the total life span. The objectives of psychological study are to understand human nature, for its own sake,

PSYC 2001 (3CR)RESEARCH DESIGN AND ANALYSIS I

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 1 Hour

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and PSYC 1011 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: MATH 2311

A lecture and laboratory course in which basic design principles involved in the scientific approach to empirical research and data collection are considered. The use of descriptive and inferential statistics to evaluate the results of carefully planned research is also described.

PSYC 2011 (3CR)RESEARCH DESIGN AND ANALYSIS II

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 1 Hour

Prereq: PSYC 1001, PSYC 1011, PSYC 2001 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: MATH 2321, PSYC 2101 (Research Design and Analysis)

This course covers the research process from the development of simple and complex research designs to statistical analyses of the data collected. Topics covered include analysis of variance, correlation analysis, and nonparametric approaches. A statistical software package is introduced. This course will include both lectures and tutorials.

PSYC 2101 (3CR)BIOPSYCHOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 1 Hour

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and 1011 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: PSYC 2051 (Introduction to Brain and Behaviour)

In this lecture and laboratory course, students will be provided with a basic foundation in the neural bases of behavior. Topics will include the role of evolution and genetics in the development of the nervous system, the structure and function of the nervous system, and the biological bases of perception, movement, eating, drinking, sleeping and dreaming, sexual behaviour, addiction and reward, and memory.

PSYC 2111 (3CR)DRUGS AND BEHAVIOUR

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and 1011 and second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Principles of pharmacology, neural transmission, behavioural assessment of drug effects, theories of addiction, tolerance, and dependence will all be explored as a conceptual introduction to behavioural pharmacology. Specific psychopharmacologic issues will be discussed for alcohol, benzodiazepines, barbiturates, opiates, psychomotor stimulants, caffeine, tobacco, hallucinogens, and antipsychotic drugs.

PSYC 2121 (3CR)BEHAVIOUR MODIFICATION

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and 1011 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: PSYC 2011 (Learning and Memory)

Basic concepts and theories involved in the psychology of learning, the analysis of behaviour and behavioural assessment will be discussed in the context of real life problems. Applications of behaviour modification and behaviour therapy will be discussed in terms of problems associated with parenting, development of social skills, education, disabilities, health and other issues.

PSYC 2201 (3CR)COGNITIVE PROCESSES

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 1 Hour

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and 1011 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: PSYC 3021 (Cognition)

This lecture and laboratory course provides an overview of mental processes and activities used in perceiving, learning, remembering, thinking, and understanding. This course will offer students an opportunity to explore current information processing models and their applications. Some of the topics surveyed include attention, memory, language, neurocognition and thinking and reasoning.

PSYC 2301 (3CR)SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY

Format: Lecture 3 Hours, Laboratory 1 Hour

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and 1011 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: PSYC 3081 (Social Psychology)

A lecture and laboratory course introducing students to the field of social psychology. Topics covered will include social cognition, attitudes, prejudice and discrimination, interpersonal attraction, social influence, helping and aggression, and group processes.

PSYC 2401 (3CR)CHILD DEVELOPMENT

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and 1011 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: PSYC 2031 (Introduction to Developmental Psychology)

An overview of social, cognitive, and biological development during infancy and childhood. Some of the topics covered include the development of perception, memory, emotions, and family and peer relationships.

PSYC 2411 (3CR)ADOLESCENCE

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Prereq: PSYC 1001 and 1011 and at least second-year standing; or permission of the Department

Exclusion: PSYC 3031 (Stages of Psychological Development)

An overview of social, cognitive, and biological development during adolescence. Some of the topics covered include puberty, identity, peer groups, and adolescent sexuality.

Exclusion: PSYC 4071 (Advanced Topics in Personality)

This course presents an in-depth examination of theory and research pertinent to a topic of current interest in the field of Personality.

PSYC 4903 (3CR)HONOURS SEMINAR

Format: Seminar 2 Hours

Coreq: PSYC 4990; or permission of the Department

A seminar for honours students in Psychology that will involve consideration of metatheoretical, psychometric, and ethical issues that inevitably arise in the course of virtually any type of psychological inquiry. In addition to the critical evaluation of classic articles on these topics, students will make periodic presentations of their own ongoing research, which will be open to all members of the Department.

PSYC 4950/4951 (6/3CR)DIRECTED STUDY ON SPECIAL TOPICS

Format: Independent Study

The course is intended to enable advanced students to pursue their interests in areas not covered by other classes offered at the 4000 level. Students must consult with the faculty member whom they wish to supervise their work, and obtain his or her consent, before attempting to register for this course. The prerequisites (or corequisites) will be determined by the nature of the work the student wishes to do.

PSYC 4990 (6CR)HONOURS THESIS

Format: Independent Study/Thesis

Prereq: PSYC 3001 and 3091; or permission of the Department

The senior thesis will involve an experimental research project carried out in close consultation with a member of the Department.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES

Religion deals with the most basic and ultimate questions of human existence: the meaning and purpose of life; the presence of death, sorrow and anxiety; the existence of God; questions of morality and justice; the possibilities of transcendence, salvation, and liberation for individuals and communities. Religion plays a central role in the construction of human cultures and societies, motivating and legitimating social, political, and ethical action. Religion has been and continues to be a powerful influence in literature, the arts, and history, as well as in current civil and global conflicts.

Religious Studies as an academic discipline does not indoctrinate in any religious tradition (though it may certainly help students clarify their own thinking and convictions). Rather, it takes a scholarly and analytical approach, and, as such, is open to students from all backgrounds, secular and religious. The academic study of religion examines the various religious traditions of the world, east and west, in their historical and contemporary contexts. It explores the various ways in which religion shapes culture and history, forms values, and authorizes human action. Thus Religious Studies is an integral part of the liberal arts curriculum.

Courses in Religious Studies are divided into three streams: Eastern Traditions (Hinduism, Buddhism, East Asian Religions), Western Traditions (Judaism, Christianity, Islam), and Religion and Culture. Introductory courses (at 1000 and 2000 level) lay the foundation for focused study of particular traditions and for courses that explore how religion relates to themes in the wider culture - such as in the arts, gender issues, and ethics (at 3000 and 4000 level).

The Humanities 1600-series is intended to provide an introduction to Humanities disciplines. These three-credit courses offered by the participating disciplines of Classics, History, Philosophy and Religious Studies are designed to acquaint beginning students with the methodologies typical of these disciplines and to familiarize them with the approaches taken as well as the sorts of themes pursued and questions raised in these disciplines.

Further information is available on request from the Department Office, Room 112, Hart Hall (364-2556).

RELIGIOUS STUDIES ELECTIVES

Those who wish to do electives may choose from Religious Studies courses in the 1600 series: 1641, 1651, and 1671; or from 2401, 2801, 2811, 2821, 2831, or 2841; or with appropriate prerequisites, several other courses in the Department.

Disciplinary B.A. Programmes

MINOR in Religious Studies is 24 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from the Humanities 1600 Series
- 6 from Religious Studies at the 2000 level
- 12 from Religious Studies at the 3/4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

MAJOR AREA OF STUDY in Religious Studies is 60 credits earned as follows:

- 6 from the Humanities 1600 Series

- 6 Religious Studies 2401 and 2801
- 3 Religious Studies 3901
- 6 from Religious Studies 3001, 3101
- 6 from Religious Studies 3501, 3601, or 3701
- 15 from 3/4000 level Religious Studies courses, with at least 6 from 4000 level Religious Studies courses
- 18 credits from complementary courses in Arts and Letters, Humanities and Social Sciences, which may include further 2000 level Religious Studies courses, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

HONOURS in Religious Studies is 72 credits earned as follows:

- 60 credits as in the Major, plus:
- 6 from Religious Studies 4990
- 6 from Religious Studies at the 3/4000 level, chosen in consultation with the Programme Advisor

Note: The listing of a course in the calendar is not a guarantee that the course is offered every year.

Note: Students must obtain a grade of at least C- in all courses used to fulfill prerequisite requirements. Otherwise, written permission of the appropriate Department or Programme Coordinator must be obtained.

RELG 2841 (3CR)
THE APOCALYPTIC CONSCIOUSNESS

Format: Lecture 3 Hours

Exclusion: RELG 2031

A study of the apocalyptic consciousness in ancient documents and in modern thought, particularly with reference to ideas about the Day of Judgment and Second Coming. In addition to biblical and non-biblical texts, students will reflect on contemporary portrayals of the apocalyptic image in art, literature and film. Modern manifestations of the apocalyptic cult will be explored, with specific reference to cults of expectation.

SOCIOLOGY

Sociology involves the study of people as they interact with one another in varied social, structural, cultural and historical contexts. Sociology provides information on the social world, introduces students to different perspectives on social life, and offers training in specific research skills. It expands our horizons, challenges us to think critically about the world around us, and prepares us to participate in that world. First and second year sociology courses provide an overview of the discipline and an introduction to sociological analysis. Third year courses emphasize theoretical approaches, analytical methods, and their application to major substantive areas of sociological interest. Fourth year courses allow students to work with greater interdependence and in more depth on a range of sociological topics.

WOMEN'S STUDIES

Women's Studies is an interdisciplinary programme with a critical focus on social, cultural, economic, and political issues from the perspective of gender. Drawing on a substantial body of scholarship that challenges many of the assumptions and methods of traditional academic disciplines, Women's Studies creates new perspectives from which all students may analyze such issues as work, health, sexuality, violence, family, race, class and ethnicity. The curriculum of the Minor in Women's Studies includes core courses in Women's Studies and elective courses in the following departments: History, Sociology, Anthropology, Geography, Religious Studies, Philosophy, English, Classics, Psychology, Political Science, Canadian Studies and Modern Languages and Literatures. The core courses provide an introduction to the principles of Women's Studies as well as a more advanced study of the theoretical and methodological approaches of feminism.

MINOR in Women's Studies is 24 credits earned as follows:

12 from Women's Studies 2001, 3001, 3021, 4001

10 CO-CURRICULAR LIFE

10.1 THE STUDENT UNION

The Student Union of Mount Allison is governed by the Students' Administrative Council (SAC). This a body of elected and appointed persons who represent, organize, and plan for the interests of the students. However, the wider Mount Allison community benefits from many of the activities the SAC pursues.

The SAC represents the students through council with representatives from on and off campus, and the six member executive. There are also many other positions, appointed through the SAC, that allow any student the opportunity to get involved. Many positions receive compensation in the form of small honoraria. The SAC also employs an administrator and an office manager to aid in its work. The SAC is located in the University Centre.

Some of the services and events provided by the SAC include:

- Organizing Orientation, Homecoming and Winter Carnival
- Photocopying and faxes (pay as you play)
- Examination File
- Student Directories and the Allisonian Yearbook
- MAST (Mount Allison Student Tutoring)
- Dances, speakers, entertainment...AND MORE!!

The SAC also sponsors and promotes the Clubs and Societies (C&S) of Mount Allison. These are a great asset and a wonderful way to become involved on campus. They include:

- Academic Departmental C&S (e.g. Commerce Society, Fine Arts Society)
- Political C&S - Young PC's, Young Liberals and Young NDP's
- Musical C&S - Chapel Choir, Conservatory Chorale, Ethel Peake Memorial Society, Mount Allison Brass Ensemble, etc.
- Blue/Green Society (Environmental)
- Eurhethorian Society (Debating)
- Garnet and Gold Society (Musical Theatre group)
- Mount Allison Christian Fellowship
- Society of All Nations (SAN)
- World University Services of Canada (WUSC)

Any student wishing to form a club or society can do so and should go to the SAC Office for help getting started. Athletic clubs and intramurals are all run through the Athletics Department. Students have widespread representation on the campus, including membership on the Board of Regents (governing body) and Senate (academic body). Full-time students are also enrolled as members of the New Brunswick Student Alliance.

10.2 THE ARGOSY WEEKLY

This weekly newspaper has been published for over 125 years by an all-student staff. The newspaper is editorially independent of both the University administration and the Student Administrative Council.

10.3 CHMA FM

In 1985 the CHMA Radio Station was converted to FM Stereo frequency. Mount Allison is one of the smallest universities to have an FM radio station. The staff (from the announcers to the technicians) consists mainly of students and members of the Sackville community, all working under a full-time Station Manager. The Station is funded by students fees and advertising revenues and reaches a listening audience of over 15,000.

10.4 GARNET AND GOLD SOCIETY

The Garnet and Gold Society offers students a chance to take part in the production of a major musical. Students coordinate all aspects of the production, which is usually presented early in the new year.

10.5 WINDSOR THEATRE

This theatre group puts on major productions each term, some of which are created by members of the Mount Allison community.

10.6 STUDENT ENTERTAINMENT OFFICE

This branch of the S.A.C. co-ordinates all campus entertainment. In addition to the usual dances, movies, live bands, and cultural performances, a number of popular special events are also offered. These include Orientation Week, Homecoming, Junior Prom, Winter Carnival and Graduation events.

10.7 RESIDENCE COUNCIL

All students living in the University's various residences elect house councils and executives. These bodies organize house events and co-ordinate social activities. Each House Council President sits on Residence Council, a body which represents residential concerns to the Dean of Students.

10.8 THE TANTRAMARSH CLUB

The campus pub, established in 1974, is a vibrant venue for social gatherings. The pub is the only permanently licensed facility on campus and offers to its members a giant T.V. screen, pool tables, a dance floor and weekly special events.

10.9 STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Part time job opportunities are plentiful at Mount Allison. Students may earn extra income through employment with Food Services, the Library, the Campus Police, Residence Staff, Bar Services, the Tantramarsh Club and various academic departments. Contact the Academic and Career Counsellor in Student Life for more details.

10.10 ACCOMMODATION

10.10.1 Residences

Mount Allison is a residential university with housing facilities available for approximately 50% of the student population. Each residence is unique and provides a positive living and learning environment, which promotes a balanced university experience. All first-year students who want to live in residence are guaranteed accommodation.

Since 1973 the University has offered co-ed residence facilities to its students. Bennett, Bigelow, Hunton, Trueman, Windsor, the Satellites and Bermuda House offer single and double rooms while Edwards, Harper and Thornton have single rooms. Campbell Hall, new in 2004-2005, offers single rooms with ensuite bathrooms. Some co-ed residences are divided by floor or by wing, while others have male and female rooms integrated on the same floor.

of faith in university life. It stands as a reminder that the university is committed to nurturing students as whole human persons.

While founded under Methodist direction, Mount Allison upholds freedom of religion and creeds. Chapel worship and activities are ecumenical by design; the Office of the Chaplain is intended to be an ecumenical appointment, responsive to the many Christian denominations represented on campus. The Chaplain is open to

10.14 COUNSELLING SERVICES

10.14.1 Personal Concerns

There are a number of options for students who wish to talk in confidence about a personal problem.

The personal counsellors and the Chaplain are available to provide confidential assistance for a variety of personal issues including anxiety, depression, alcohol or drug use, sexuality, relationships, sexual assault, family dysfunction and grief. The need for psychiatric and other mental health services can be assessed through the personal counsellors.

Emergencies: In an emergency, students may contact Student Life, the Sackville hospital or the psychiatrist-on-call at the Moncton hospital.

10.14.2 Sexual Harassment

The University's Sexual Harassment Advisor is available to provide education on sexual harassment and assault and to receive complaints from students, staff and faculty. The Advisor has copies of the University's policies and upon request will advise those who contact her about the options available both on and off campus.

10.14.3 Career Choice Concerns

The University Career Resource Centre is located in the basement of the University Centre and houses information on graduate and professional programmes, careers and study and work abroad programmes. Information is available on occupational profiles, labour market trends, resumé writing, job search techniques and preparing for interviews. Workshops are also available on career related issues throughout the academic year. The Academic and Career Counsellor offers guidance with career exploration through individual career counselling and interest and skill surveys which help students answer the following questions:

What career do my abilities lead to?

What career or study path do my interests lead to?

What can I do with my undergraduate degree?

Where should I go to pursue this career?

What does the future hold for the profession I am interested in?

10.14.4 Employment

All job postings received by the Academic and Career Counsellor are posted on <<http://www.workopolisCampus.com>> which is a free web service accessible to all students. Some hard copies of job postings are placed on a notice board outside the Student Life Office. A variety of internships and on- and off-campus career and summer employment opportunities, both part-time and full-time, are posted. Applications and additional information are available in the Student Life Office, in the basement of the University Centre. In addition, the Academic and Career Counsellor coordinates the visits of employers to campus. For further information contact the Academic and Career Counsellor.

10.14.5 Financial Concerns

University bursaries, student loan applications and personal budgetary and financial management may be discussed with the Financial Aid Counsellor in the Office of Student Services. Academic scholarships and prizes should also be discussed with the Financial Aid Counsellor in the Office of Student Services. For information on Scholarships and Financial Aid, go to <<http://www.mta.ca>> and choose prospective or current student.

10.14.6 Dietary and Nutritional Concerns

A dietitian visits campus one day per week for appointments to discuss balanced diets, nutrition and healthy living. She may be contacted through Student Life.

10.14.7 Lifestyle Concerns

Information, materials and programmes on health, lifestyle choices, stress management, sexuality, birth control, AIDS, sexually transmitted diseases, alcohol, drugs, and similar concerns, are available through Student Life Programmes will be presented on request.

10.14.8 Landlord/Tenant Concerns

Students with inquiries about landlord/tenant relations or leases are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students, or the Office of the Rentalsman in Moncton.

10.14.9 First-year Off-Campus Students

Student Life engages a student to help coordinate the activities of first-year off-campus students. The goal of the group is to help involve new non-residence students in campus life and to ensure as warm an introduction to Mount Allison as possible. The student coordinator can be reached through Student Life.

10.14.10 International Students

Students who come to Mount Allison from other countries are very important members of the University community. A special International Orientation is held for them when they arrive to help them with their adjustment to Canada through information sessions answering their specific needs. The International Student Advisor is available throughout the year to help international students with any kinds of problems they might have such as cultural adjustment and personal, academic or immigration problems. A comprehensive health insurance plan for international students is available through this office as well. The International Student Advisor also oversees Mount Allison's policy on racism which protects international students' rights not to be discriminated against because of race, colour, ethnic or national origin, place of origin or ancestry, and works with several student clubs and committees on projects which promote multiculturalism on campus.

10.14.11 Governance

Since 1989, students have been subject to the student governance system described in the document Policies and Procedures for Student Governance, which is available from the SAC or Student Life. The Dean of Students is available to explain to students how the governance system works and what students' rights are under the system. All students admitted to the University agree to abide by, and be subject to, the regulations as outlined in this document. The University reserves the right to suspend or dismiss any student for infractions of the regulations. Neither the University nor any of its regents or officers shall be under any liability whatsoever because of such action.

10.14.12 Health Services

The Student Health Centre, located in Sprague House, is a confidential, nonjudgemental health service that strives to reduce health barriers for young adults living away from home. The Centre is staffed by a receptionist and a Registered Nurse/Educator to serve the health needs of Mount Allison students. This health service provides health education, health promotion initiatives, clinical services, and referrals, as appropriate.

The offices of six local doctors are located in close proximity to the campus. Students are encouraged to make appointments with the doctors as necessary. Emergencies are dealt with at the Out-Patient Department of the Sackville Hospital.

A dietitian is available each week on campus. Appointments may be made at Student Life.

Because most students have health insurance through parental plans, the University does not have a mandatory health insurance programme for Canadian students. Health insurance is mandatory for international students. Students are strongly urged to ensure that they have adequate coverage. A list of health insurance options is available from Student Life.

10.15 SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

10.15.1 Policy on Students with Disabilities

Mount Allison University is proud to be an institution that welcomes and supports a diverse student body. To this end, Mount Allison is committed to providing a supportive and challenging environment for students with disabilities, and, where warranted and without compromising academic standards, will provide reasonable accommodations.

The Office of Student Life and the Meighen Centre (Learning Disabilities) offer a range of services to support the academic needs of students with disabilities. The Meighen Centre offers a range of services to students with learning disabilities and all inquiries related to learning disabilities should be addressed to this office. Student Life coordinates services to students with disabilities other than learning disabilities. Inquiries should be addressed to Student Life.

Copies of the University's Policy on Students With Disabilities may be obtained from Student Life and from the Meighen Centre and it may be viewed at www.mta.ca/departments/sss/policies/disabilities.html.

10.15.2 Student Life

The Student Life Office provides services to students with disabilities other than learning disabilities who are currently attending Mount Allison University. To receive service, students must present appropriate documentation.

Services include academic counselling, personal counselling, instruction and ongoing support in learning and organizational strategies, liaison with food services and arrangements for accommodations for writing tests and examinations when appropriate.

Students with a disability other than a learning disability who are applying for admission to Mount Allison are strongly encouraged to identify themselves on the application form. As well, they should make contact with the Student Life Office as early as possible in the admissions process.

Students currently attending Mount Allison who have been previously identified with disability other than a learning disability and who want to access support services should contact the Academic and Career Counsellor at (506) 364-3256.

10.15.3 Meighen Centre for Learning Assistance and Research

The Meighen Centre for Learning Assistance and Research provides academic assistance to students currently registered at Mount Allison University who have been professionally assessed and found to have a Learning Disability.

Services include academic counselling, learning strategies instruction, peer tutoring, consultation, access to text books on audio tape and arrangements for special accommodations for writing tests and examinations when appropriate.

Students with a learning disability who are applying for admission to Mount Allison are strongly encouraged to identify themselves on the application form. As well, they should make contact with the Meighen Centre as early as possible in the admissions process.

Students currently attending Mount Allison who have been previously identified with a learning disability and who want to access support services should contact the Coordinator of the Meighen Centre at (506) 364-2527.
